HORATIO SEYMOUR.

His Letter of Acceptance of the Democratic Nomination for President.

By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, August 5.—The following is Horatio Seymour's acceptance of the Democratic nomination for the Presidency:

Utica, August 4, 1868.—Gentlemen: When in the city of New York on the 11th ult., in the presence of a vast multitude, on behalf of the National Democratic Convention you tendered to me its unanimous nomination as their candidate for the office of President of the United States, I stated I had no words adequate to express my gratitude for the good-will and kindness which that body had shown to me. Its nomination was unsought and unexpected. It was my ambition to take an active part, from which I am now excluded, in the great struggle going on for the restoration of good government, of peace and prosperity to our country. But I have been caught up by the whelming tide which is bearing us on to a great political change, and I find myself unable to resist its pressure. You have also given me a copy of the resolutions put forth by the Convention, showing its position upon all the great questions which new agitate the country. As the presiding officer of that Convention, I am familiar with their scope and import. As one of its members, I am a party to their terms. They are in accord with my views, and I stand upon them in the contest upon which we are now entering, and I shall strive to carry them out in the future, wherever I may be placed, in political or private life. I then stated I would send you these words of acceptance in a letter, as is the customary form. I see no reason, upon reflection, to change or qualify the terms of my approval of the resolutions of the Convention. I have delayed the mere formal act of communicating to you in writing what I thus publicly said, for the purpose of seeing what light the action of Congress would throw upon the interests of the country. Its acts since the adjournment of the Convention show an alarm lest a change of power will give to the people what they ought to have, a clear statement of what has been done with the money drawn from them during the past eight years. Thoughtful men feel that there have been wrongs in the financial management which have been kept from the public knowledge. The Congressional party has not only allied itself with military power, which is to be brought to bear directly upon the elections in many States, but holds itself in perpetual session with the avowed purpose of making such laws as it shall see fit. In view of the elections which will take place within a few weeks, it did, therefore, not adjourn, but took a recess to meet again, if its partizan interests shall demand its reassembling. Never before in the history of our country has Congress thus taken a menacing attitude towards its electors. Under its influence some of the States, organized by its agents, are proposing to deprive the people of the right to vote for Presidential Electors, and the first bold steps are taken to destroy the rights of suffrage. It is not strange, therefore, that thoughtful men see in such action the proof that there is with those who shape the policy of the Republican party motives stronger and deeper than the mere wish to hold political power—that there is a dread of some exposure which drives them on to acts so desperate and so impolitic. Many of the ablest leaders and journals of the Republican party have openly deplored the violence of Congressional action, and its tendency to keep up discord in our country. The great interests of our Union demand peace, order and a return to those international pursuits without which we cannot maintain the faith or honor of our Government. The minds of business men are perplexed by uncertainties; the hours of toil of our laborers are lengthened by the cost of living made by the direct and indirect exactions of the Government; our people are harrassed by the frequent demands of the tax gatherer. Without distinction of party there is a strong feeling in favor of that line of action which shall restore order and confidence and shall lift off the burdens which now hinder and vex the industry of the country, Yet at this moment those in power have thrown into the Senate chamber and Congressional hall a new element of discord and violence. Men have been admitted as Representatives of some of the Southern States with the declaration upon their lips that they cannot live in the States they claim to represent without military protection. These men are to make laws for the North as well as the South. These men, who a few days since were seeking as suppliants that Congress would give them power within their respective States, are to-day the controllers of the actions of these bodies, entering them with minds filled with demands that Congress shall look upon the States from which they come as in conditions of civil war, that the majority of their population, embracing their intelligence, had to be treated as public enemies, be kept up at the cost of the people of the North, and that there shall be no peace and order at the South, save that which is made by arbitrary power. Every intelligent man knows that they not only owe their present positions to disorder, but that every motive springs from the love of power, of gain. A desire for vengeance prompts them to keep the South in anarchy. While that exists they are independent of the will or wishes of their fellow citizens. While confusion reigns, they are the dispensers of the profits and the honors which grow out of a Government of mere force. These men are now placed in positions where they cannot only urge their views of politics, but where they can enforce them. When they shall be admitted in this manner from the remaining Southern States, although they will have in truth no constitutions, they will have more power in the Senate than a majority of the people of this Union living in the line of the great States. In vain members of the Republican party protested against the policy that led to this result. While the chiefs of the late rebellion have submitted to the result of the war, and are now quietly engaged in useful pursuits for the support of themselves and their families, and are trying by the force of their example to lead back the people of the South to order and industry, not only essential to their well being, but to the greatness and prosperity of our community, all see that those without ability or influence have been thrown by the agitation of civil convulsion into positions of honor, of profit, and are striving to keep alive the passions which they owe their elevation, and they clamorously insist that they are the only friends of our Union. Proof of that can only have sure foundation in fraternal regard and a common desire to promote the peace, the order and the happiness of all portions of our land.

Events in Congress since the adjournment of the Convention have vastly increased the importance of a political victory by those who are seeking to bring back economy, simplicity and justice in the administration of our national affairs. Many Republicans who have heretofore clung to their party have regretted the extreme of violence to which it has run. They have cherished a faith that while the action of their political friends has been mistaken, their motives have been good. They must now see that the Republican party is in that condition that it cannot carry out a peaceful policy. Whatever its motives may be, it is a misfortune not only to a country, but to a government party itself, when its action is unchanged by any form of opposition. It has been the misfortune of the Republican party that the events of the past few years have given it so much power that it has been able to shackle the Executive, to trammel the Judiciary, and carry out the views of the most unwise and violent of its members. When this state of things exists in any party, it has ever been found that the judgment of its ablest leaders do not control. There is hardly an able man who has helped to build up the Republican organization, who has within the past three years warned it against excesses, who has not been borne down and forced to give up his convictions of what the interests of the country call for, or if too patriotic to do this, who has not been driven from its ranks. If this has been the case heretofore, what will be its action, with this new infusion of men, who, without a decent respect for the views of those who had just given them their positions, beginning their legislative career with calls for arms and demands that States shall be regarded as in a condition of civil war, and a declaration that they are ready and anxious to degrade the President of the United States, whenever they can persuade and force Congress to bring forward new articles of impeachment? The Republican party as well as we are interested in putting some check upon this violence. It must be clear to every thinking man that a disposition of political power tends to check the violence of party action, and assures the peace and good order of the country. The election of a Democratic Executive, and a majority of Democratic members to the House of Representatives, would not give to that party organization power to make sudden or violent changes, but would serve to check those extreme measures which have been deplored by the best men of both organizations. The result would most certainly lead to that peaceful restoration of the Union, and re-establishment of fraternal relationship, which the country desire. I am sure the best men of the Republican party deplore as deeply as I do the spirit of violence shown by those recently admitted to seats in Congress, for the condition of civil war which they contemplate must be abhorent to every right thinking man.

I have no mere personal wishes which mislead my judgment in regard to the election. No man who has weighed and measured the duties of the office of President of the United States can fail to be impressed with the cares and toils of him who is to meet its demands. It is not merely to float with popular currents, without a policy or a purpose. On the contrary, while our Constitution gives just weight to the public will, its distinguishing feature is that it seeks to protect the rights of minorities. Its greatest glory is that it puts restraints upon power. It gives force and form to those maxims and principles of civil liberty for which the martyrs of freedom have struggled through ages. It declares the right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses and papers against unreasonable search and seizures; that Congress shall make no law respecting the establishment of religion or the free exercise thereof, or abridging freedom of speech, or of the press, or the right of the people to petition for redress of grievances. It secures the right of a speedy and public trial by an impartial jury. No man can rightfully enter upon the duties of the Presidential office unless he is not only willing to carry out the wishes of the people, expressed in a Constitutional way, but is also prepared to stand up for the rights of minorities. He must be ready to uphold the free exercise of religion. He must denounce measures which would wrong personal or home rights, or the religious conscience of the humblest citizen of the land. He must maintain without distinction of creed or nationality all the privileges of an American citizenship. The experience of every public man, who has been faithful to his trust, teaches him that no one can do the duties of the office of President unless he is ready, not only to undergo the falsehoods and abuse of the bad, but to suffer from the censure of the good, who are misled by prejudices and misrepresentations. There are no attractions in such a position which deceive my judgment.

When I say that a great change is going on in the public mind, I mean the mass of the Republican party are more thoughtful, tempered and just than they were during the excitement which attended the progress and close of the civil war. As the energy of the Democratic party springs from their devotion to their cause and to their candidates, I may with propriety speak of the fact, that never in the political history of our country has the action of any like body been hailed with such universal and real enthusiasm as that which has been shown in relation to the position of the National Democratic Convention. With this the candidates had nothing to do. Had any others of those named been selected this spirit would have been, perhaps, more marked. The zeal and energy of the Conservative masses spring from a desire to make a change of policy, and from the thought that they can carry out their purposes. In this faith they are strengthened by the co-operation of the great body of those who served in the Union army and navy during the war. Having given nearly sixteen thousand commissions to the officers of that army, I know their views and wishes. They demand the Union for which they fought. One of the largest meetings of these gallant soldiers ever assembled, was held in New York, and endorsed the action of the National Convention in words distinct with meaning. They call on the Government to stop in its policy of hate, discord and disunion, and in terms of fervid eloquence demand the restoration of the rights of the American people. When there is such accord between those who proved themselves brave and self-sacrificing in war, and those who are thoughtful and patriotic in council, I cannot doubt we shall gain a political triumph which will restore our Union, bring back peace to our land, and give us once more the blessings of a wise, economical and honest government.

I am, gentlemen, truly yours, &c.,

HORATIO SEYMOUR.

Base Ball at Zanesville, Ohio.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CINCINNATI, August 5.—A match game of base ball was played to-day at Zanesville, Ohio, between the Cincinnati Club, of this city, and the celebrated Hickory Club, of McConnellsville. The score stood Cincinnati 59 and Hickory 16. A large crowd was in attendance to witness the game. The Cincinnati Club play at Wheeling to-morrow.

PORTLAND, ME.

International Commercial Convention.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

PORTLAND, Me., August 6.—The Commercial Convention was called to order at half-past ten o'clock. Hon. Erastus Brooks, of New York, was invited to address the Convention. He complimented Portland, his native city, and spoke of the mortifying fact that fifty foreign steamers trade with New York and not one American. He thought the repeal of the reciprocity treaty was the spirit of retaliation, injudicious, and he would be glad to have another made. He wished that vessels of war on the lakes might be taken off and commerce between the two people altogether free. Reciprocity was really made according to the Golden Rule, and if governed by that the West and East would not be jealous of New York. The action of the Federal Government had stripped New York of her steam commerce, but she is not jealous of other sections. Inland commerce is four times as valuable as foreign commerce, and demanded protection as well. No one doubts the power of Congress to build light-houses on the coast, yet men hesitate as to its power to improve the navigation of our mighty waters. As a New Yorker, he would gladly hail the day when railroads would be completed from Halifax to the West.

Mr. Pringle, of Michigan, from the Committee of Reciprocal Commercial Relations between the United States and the Provinces, made a report, setting forth the advantages of reciprocity. Politically neither side has reason to object. Labor would be mutually benefitted. Ten years trial had doubled commerce, and since its abolishment it had shrunk to nearly the old limits. Taxation in the States can be so reduced that all differences can be settled. As to the question of grain and cattle the advantage of climate is really in favor of the States. The Canadian objection, that the United States wish annexation, is futile, as no reasonable body of men in the States seek it, except it is desired by Canadians themselves. The Committee presented resolutions, which were adopted, calling the early attention of Congress to the subject of free intercourse with the Dominion of Canada; that no time should be lost, Congress is strongly urged to appoint a commission to frame a commercial alliance or Zolverein.

Senator Corbett, from the Committee on Railroads across the Continent, reported resolutions to the effect that the Convention is profoundly impressed with the important changes about to take place in the commercial relations by the completion of the great trans-continental railways The interest excited among oriental nations, and the desire expressed by them to cultivate commercial relations with the United States, renders it our duty to complete those enterprises and meet them; that in the judgment of this Convention there should be two great continental railways, one north and one south of the great central route; that the Convention respectfully urge upon Congress the patriotic duty of rendering adequate aid to insure the completion of these two routes; that the route to Puget Sound, affording the shortest route to Asia, promises advantages to the entire country; that the projected railway of the thirty-fifth parallel of latitude is of no less importance; that the Convention recommend the completion of a line from Portland to the West, to connect with the Pacific and Atlantic road, as the shortest route, as well as connecting the lines by the shortest way with the Atlantic.

An invitation was received from the Committee on Arrangements for the members of the Convention to take a sail down the Bay in the steamer John Brooks this afternoon. It was accepted and the thanks of the Convention returned.

Hon. Amasa Walker, of Massachusetts, addressed the Convention on the evils of a depreciated currency.

Mr. Cain, of Rutland, urged immediate action of the Convention on the business on hand, and the importance of an evening session.

Judge Rice, of Augusta, uged the importance of hearing the opinion of the distinguished men present, and called out Mr. Blow, of Missouri, who congratulated the Convention on reports of Committees made this morning. He wished the discussion of political questions might be left out. The Convention had met to discuss the trans-continental railway. He discussed the great importance of the Northern and Southern routes.

The report of the Committee was accepted and the resolutions adopted.

Mr. Taylor, from the Committee on Lake, River and Canal Navigation, reported resolutions favoring the co-operation of the United States with those States and provinces interested in the enlargement of the existing canal channels and other improvements of the St. Lawrence, such as will admit vessels of one thousand tons from Lakes Michigan and Superior into the Gulf of St. Lawrence and the harbor of New York; also, that the great western rivers, not exclusively within the limits of a State, have equal claims on Congress, as it has the constitutional authority to regulate commerce; also, that a judicious system of expenditures for these national objects should be extended to the Pacific coast as well as to the Atlantic and Northern coast.

The report was accepted and the resolutions adopted.

Hon. John A. Poor moved the reconsideration of the vote adopting the resolutions on reciprocity.

The motion was laid on the table.

The Convention took a recess until half-past seven o'clock this evening.

GENERAL GRANT.

Enthusiastic Ovation at St. Louis —Speech from the General.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

ST. LOUIS, August 5.—Gen. Grant was the recipient of the most enthusiastic demonstration to-night in the way of a serenade ever given to any one in this city. Before the General's arrival, and several times since, public demonstrations in his honor have been proposed, but they have been declined. Since his first arrival he has not spent a single night in the city. It has therefore been impossible for the citizens to make any public expression in his honor and have him present. But as it was known he would leave for Galena to-morrow, he was invited to meet a few political friends this evening at the residence of William McKee, proprietor of the Democrat, and he consented. The result was a most hearty and enthusiastic ovation. Hundreds of citizens thronged the residence and were introduced to the General, and between ten and eleven o'clock three bands, each accompanied by a large crowd from different parts of the city, with banners and transparencies, came and serenaded him. At this time the street in front of the residence was packed with people, blocking the street railroad. In response to loud and prolonged calls the General appeared on the steps of the house and was introduced to the crowd by Gen. Pile in a brief but eloquent and pointed speech, after which Gen. Grant stepped forward and spoke as follows:

Gentlemen and fellow citizens: I scarcely can find words to thank you for this very hearty and warm reception. It is peculiarly gratifying to me to meet so many friends, of St. Louis and St. Louis county, where I have restded longer than at any other one place since I have been a man grown, and where I have interests and may again become a resident at some future day. Thanking you again I will bid you good night.

This speech was received with nine enthusiastic cheers, and large numbers of the people pressed forward to greet the General, who remained on the steps some minutes, and shook hands with all who could approach within reach. The General soon afterwards left for his home, acknowledging himself "outflanked" for once, but expressing himself highly gratified with the demonstration.

The crowd lingered a long time and speeches were made by Charles Johnson, Colonel Calcard and others.

General Grant will leave for Galena to-morrow afternoon.

TENNESSEE.

Memorials for the Removal of Political Disabilities—Murder in Memphis—Two Prisoners Taken from Jail by a Mob and Hung by Ku-Klux.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NASHVILLE, August 5.—In the House yesterday Mr. Presser, from the Legislative Committee, presented the memorial of Generals Cheatham, Forrest and others, with whom conference was had last week, asking the removal of political disabilities, which was referred. Mr. Kercheval announced that gentlemen were in the lobby with a memorial from citizens on the same subject, which they wished to submit. A recess of fifteen minutes to receive them was moved, and, after considerable discussion, was carried. Chancellor Shackelford, Radical, appeared at the bar, read the memorial, and briefly urged that the prayer be granted. Mr. Hamilton, of Shelby county, asked what guarantees of future peace could be given. Don De Forrest answered that he was plied with numerous questions, and for a while a scene of much excitement prevailed, the colored people in the galleries cheering loudly. Quiet was restored and the House resumed its session. No action was taken on the memorial. The following communication from Gov. Brownlow was then read:

KNOXVILLE, July 31, 1868.—My high personal regard for the author of the enclosed letter and ordinance of Hon. John M. Lea; my confidence in his patriotism and integrity, to say nothing of the importance of the subject discussed, induce me respectfully to submit these documents for your calm and deliberate consideration.

W. G. BROWNLOW.

Mr. Lea's letter favors the removal of political disabilities from the disfranchised, and expresses a firm conviction that the measure would prove advantageous to the public interest. The ordinance provides for submitting to the vote of the people an amendment of the State Constitution, conferring the right of suffrage on all males, white and colored, of proper age, as citizens of the State and United States. Should the majority of voters decide in favor of the amendment, then the present Legislature is constituted a State Convention, with authority to meet and adopt the amendment. The Senate referred the message to a Special Joint Committee. The House having been notified, adopted it in lieu of the Senate's proposition, again declaring the present not the time to consider the franchise question—yeas fifty, nays twenty. Final action on the Senate's proposition, as amended, will be taken to-morrow.

The Republican radical newspaper published by John Kuhn and J. W. S. Bailey now appears as a daily.

The House, to-day, adopted a resolution declaring this not the time to consider the franchise question, by a vote of fifty-four to fourteen, after a long debate.

Bills to suppress masked secret organizations, and to empower the Governor to employ militia to enforce the laws, will probably pass.

Reports of outrages upon negroes by disguised mobs continue to roach the city. They have the effect of determining members to pass laws to prevent their repetition.

MEMPHIS, August 5.—Tom Kenna, a fireman, was shot and mortally wounded in an affray in a saloon on Adams street, this morning. H. Fitzgerald was arrested for the deed.

On Friday night Tom McLain and Dan Gilbert, two negroes, arrested for the murder of Samuel McSwine, near Grenada, some weeks since, were taken from jail in Cafferville, Miss., by a large party of masked horsemen, carried a short distance from town and hung. The jailor and sheriff resisted the mob until overpowered. The same mob stated the negroes in the country had boasted that the Loyal League would prevent the hanging of McLain and Gilbert, and they were determined that they should suffer death for their crime.

A petition is being circulated among conservative Republicans asking the Legislature not to call out the militia. The Bulletin, Republican, favors it.

COLLECTOR FOR ALASKA.

A Collector of Customs for the District of Alaska, as authorized by the action of Congress, has not been yet appointed by the President, though several applications for the office are already on file. It is not probable any action will be taken in the matter until the return to Washington of Attorney General Evarts, whose opinion is desired by the President as to whether or not, in consideration of the office having been created and not filled while the Senate was in session, an appointment can now be valid under the Tenure-of-Office law. Meanwhile Special Treasury Agent Dodge is performing the duties of Collector of that District.

APPOINTMENTS OF SUPERVISORS.

The Secretary of the Treasury had numerous callers to-day from those having interests in the appointments of Supervisors under the new revenue law. Many applications for these positions are being backed by the strongest array of influence that can possibly be obtained by the parties anxious for appointments. There are probably not less than one hundred applicants from New York city alone. Mr. McCulloch has not yet considered any of the names recommended by Commissioner Rollins for appointment.

RECOMMENDED REMISSION.

General Grant has recommended the remission of the remainder of sentences and the release from imprisonment of all persons now in confinement under sentence of Military Commissions organized under the reconstruction acts of Congress in the States where said acts have ceased to be operative.

Lewy and Corporal Lee, for assault with sabres, etc., taking postal stamps, envelopes, United States Treasury notes and postal currency to the amount of $20,000, Corporal Lee, who commanded the soldiers, and forcibly ejected Postmaster Dunn from the Reserve, was adjudged guilty and fined one dollar and costs. The Court then adjourned until this morning, when the trial of the other defendants proceeded and the same verdict was rendered in all except the case of General Sheridan, who was fined one hundred dollars. Defendants appealed to the Criminal Court.

New York University Convention.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

ALBANY, N. Y., August 5.—The State University Convention met at the Capitol to-day, John V. L. Pruyn, Chancellor of the University, presiding. The most important discussion of the day arose on a resolution proposed by Professor North, of Hamilton College, as follows:

Resolved, That we think it desirable and called for by the educational needs of the day, that each of the literary colleges of the State should organize and sanction a department of normal instruction, under charge of a competent professor of the theory and practice of teaching.

The consideration of this question occupied the greater part of the session, and without any result being arrived at, the Convention adjourned till to-morrow.

EDUCATIONAL.

Commencement Exercises of the Washington and Jefferson College.

Correspondence of the Pittsburgh Gazette.

WASHINGTON, PA., August 4th, 1868.

The annual examination of the classes in Washington and Jefferson College, commenced yesterday. The department located here embraces those pursuing the scientific course, the Freshman class and two preparatory classes. It was evident to those who witnessed the examinations, that the aim had been to do the work thoroughly rather than to accomplish a great amount. It is true of the mind as of the body, that the increase of strength will be in proportion not to the quantity of food taken but to the amount digested and assimilated. The examinations upon Ancient and Medieval History and the structure and principles of the English language were exceedingly interesting. The systematic outline of the subjects, and the logical arrangement of details required of the students, were especially noticeable in the classes examined by Dr. James Black. The fact that with this term his labors in this institution will end, is a cause of profound regret to his numerous personal friends in this community and to all interested in the College. He goes from us to assume the Presidency of the State University at Iowa City, and carries with him to his new field the prestige of a well-earned reputation as a ripe scholar, a thorough teacher, and a successful presiding officer.

The Union and Washington Literary Societies give an entertainment in their halls this evening, at which addresses will be delivered by members chosen to represent the classes that have completed the studies of this department. It is the policy of the College authorities in every public way to encourage these societies. Great benefit results to young men from connection with them. They afford facilities not only for improvement in public speaking, but also for gaining a knowledge of the rules and mode of conducting business observed by deliberative bodies.

To-morrow the interest will all center at Canonsburg, where the public exercises of the commencement occasion will be held. The approaching meeting of the Board of Trustees is looked to with great interest as they are expected to act upon the question of a more perfect union between the two departments of the College. An active consolidation is generally conceded as a necessity on the score of economy and to establish public confidence. All the friends of these old and honored institutions unite in the desire that their streams of influence may become, and with united volume flow on, bearing a rich store of blessing to the church and the world. —Hon. Ben. Eggleston, Rep., has been nominated unanimously for Congress in the Second Ohio District. Job. Stevenson, Rep., has been nominated in the Third District.

—Anthony J. Smith has been appointed special agent of the Postoffice Department, to take charge temporarily of the Postoffice at Hanover, Pa., at a salary of $1,000 per annum.

—J. H. Jenkins & Co., dry goods dealers of Worcester, Mass., have failed, with liabilities said to amount to $50,000, including $30,000 to H. B. Claffin & Co., New York, and $10,000 to Jordan, Marsh & Co. of Boston.

—Mary Whetmore, of Frankfort, N. Y. was shot on a canal boat Tuesday evening, at Buffalo, by her husband, Milford R. Whetmore, from whom she had applied for a divorce. The woman will probably recover.

—Miss Adele Raband, an accomplished young lady of Philadelphia, was drowned while bathing in a creek near Penn Grove, twenty miles north of the city, on Monday evening. She was an excellent swimmer, but was seized with cramps.

—Frances, daughter of Joseph Haythorne, of Thompsonville, Conn., was mysteriously abducted from the home of her parents on Sunday, and no information since obtained of her fate. Albert Potter, of Workhouse Point, has been arrested for the crime.

—The Democrats and Republicans of the Twelfth district of Ohio held their Conventions at Circleville yesterday. Hon. N. J. Turney, a member of the State Board of Agriculture, was nominated for Congress by the Republicans. The Democrats nominated Hon. P. Van Trump for reelection to the seat he now holds.

—Cassius M. Clay has had a dispute with the Secretary of Legation at St. Petersburg, and at present refuses to give up his office, although he resigned some time since. The President has no right to appoint a successor under the Tenure-of-office act, and the mission will probably remain in the hands of Mr. Clay until Congress meets.

—The silk worm disease, the disastrous results of which are much complained of by the silk growers of France, is found to proceed from the presence of minerals and other organized beings in the intestines of the worms, caused by bad digestion. The same animalculæ are found in a fermented pulp of mulberry leaves. Whole breeds of worms are destroyed at once by this disease.

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

ON THE OTHER SIDE.

BY A. A. HOPKINS.

We go our way in life too much alone;
We hold ourselves too far from all our kind;
Too often are we deaf to sigh and moan;
Too often to the weak and helpless blind;
Too often, where distress and want abide,
We turn and pass upon the other side.

The other side is trodden smooth, and worn
By footsteps passing idly all the day;
Where lie the bruised ones who faint and mourn
Is seldom more than an untrodden way.
Our selfish hearts are for our feet the guide;
They lead us by upon the other side.

It should be ours the oil and wine to pour
Into the bleeding wounds of stricken ones;
To take the smitten, and the sick and sore,
And bear them where a stream of blessing runs;
Instead, we look about—the way is wide,
And so we pass upon the other side.

O, friends and brothers, gliding down the years,
Humanity is calling each and all
In tender accents, born of grief and tears!
I pray you listen to the thrilling call!
You cannot, in your selfishness and pride,
Pass guiltless by upon the other side!

[Moore's Rural New Yorker.

EPHEMERIS.

—Judge Underwood is in Cleveland.

—Ristori and suite have arrived in Paris.

—Long Branch, it is said, bristles with scandal.

—Chicago has six flourishing Jewish synagogues.

—Glacier ice is being exported from Switzerland.

—There are corner apple and pea nut stands in Sitka.

—The cholera does not rage so furiously as it did, in Havana.

—John Brougham's "Lottery of Life" has paid him $17,000.

—In spite of his name Gen. Auger is said to be anything else but a bore.

—Ex-Minister to Russia, Judd is said to be building a palace near Chicago.

—Twenty-five millions of dollars worth of gold came from California in 1867.

—Generals Rosecrans and Slocum are visiting at the house of Horatio Seymour.

—General Espartero and Spain seem to be working into political prominence once more.

—Quilp, who is a lover of music, says that "Comin' thro' the Rye" never goes "across the grain."

—McKee Rankin is doing the part of Arthur Wardlaw in "Foul Play" at the New York Theatre.

—On Monday last there was a contest at Lowell for the boot black championship of Massachusetts.

—Fifty thousand dollars have recently been paid for the refitting of a gambling hell at Long Branch.

—All of the cities of the country now have quarto dailies excepting Boston, Baltimore and Washington.

—The Mexican debt amounts to about $100,000,000, or about $12.50 for each inhabitant of the republic.

—The New Orleans Picayune utterly discredits the reports of the appearance of the cotton-worm in Louisiana.

—In spite of rumors to the contrary, young Ketchum is said to be still at Sing Sing, and in excellent spirits.

—The last thing needed to complete the ruin of Mississippi was a gold mine, and now some one has found one there.

—Prince Ernst, Queen Victoria's brother-in-law, is in England; rumor says he is coming to glance at America shortly.

—Canadian newspapers speak of "our St. Lawrence," just as if the United States did not own one side of a portion of it.

—Prof. Gurney, of Harvard, has accepted the position of associate editor of the North American Review vice Charles Eliot Norton.

—Some of the Seymour robbers have gone up into Canada, and the Dominionites for what they have received are by no means truly thankful.

—Ex-Governor Tod, of Ohio, has promised to speak in the good cause in several of the smaller towns and villages in the northwestern part of Pennsylvania.

—Wade Hampton says that the workingmen of the South must vote the Democratic ticket or starve, as there is no employment to be found for Republicans there.

—Millions of dollars worth of property have already been destroyed by the great fires which are still raging in the woods along the north shore of Lake Superior.

—Two more beautiful frescoes have been discovered at Pompeii, and removed to the museum at Naples. They were found in the vestibule of a house in the Via Stabiana.

—The new French bathing-dresses for young ladies, consisting of very tight trowsers and a vandyked waist instead of a blouse, have appeared on the beech at Long Branch.

—The first Presbyterian Church of Chicago has offered Rev. Newman Hall $10,000 a year in gold, and the use of a parsonage. Mr. Hall will probably accept and return to America in the autumn.

—The New York Tribune invokes its party to "strike." When it does, it will strike a rock, says Prentice. If it is the Democratic rock, we may be certain that whisky and not water will gush out.

—The original "All Right," the one who came first, and almost lost his life in New York, is now in Madrid, and has appeared before the Queen. This young prodigy has, we believe, never been in Pittsburgh.

—Joseph Sterling Coyne, well known as an English dramatic writer, and one of the originators of Punch, died on the 20th ult., aged sixty-three. By many persons his peculiar name was supposed to be a pseudonym.

—The Alta California urges those San Franciscoonians who have babies they wish to get rid of, to have the decency to throw them into the bay and not leave so many about the streets, as it has become disagreeable.

—Herr Georg Scherer has collected into a volume the "Village Songs of Germany" (Schonsten Deutschen-Folkslieder") which he has just published in Leipsic, with the music and sixty-eight original wood cuts.

—Nantucket, being regular Yankee land, knows how to keep cool under all circumstances. During the whole of this remarkably torrid season the thermometer has but twice marked above 80 degrees.

—Harper's Bazar was an immense success from the beginning, the secret of which is that the public have found out that the Harpers have too much self respect to allow anything to come from their house which is not at least respectable.

—The fat larvæ of cock chafers are now eaten with gusto and catsup, when done up into a patè, by the gourmands of Paris. They are said to be exceedingly delicious until one knows what he is eating.

—The Menken—as we all call her for want of a better name—smokes twenty-five cigarettes a day, and her fingers are all henna-colored at the tips, like a Pole's, from rolling these little paper cigars.

—Terese, the notorious, is making as much sensation in Brussels, as she did two or three years ago, in Berlin, although, as yet, she has not brought any of the cabinet ministers of Belgium before the public, as she did the unfortunate Prussian Count.

—Baron von Beust, has abandoned the defensive and assumed the offensive; having carried his reforms so brilliantly thus far, he now declares to the Bishops and Priests that if they do not conform to the laws they will be subject to fine and imprisonment like anybody else.

—The combination lock of the safe of the First National Bank of Girard, Pa., got out of order recently, and the officers, after working a couple of days in trying to get the doors open, were compelled to send for a lock manufacturer. He found it necessary to blow the safe open from top to bottom.

—Two Mormon preachers were mobbed at Liverpool the other day. It seems that the reason that so many young women become converts to this heresy is that the missionaries assert that they never practice polygamy at Utah, and that the Gentiles only say so to hinder them in their good work.

—In Third Lake, Madison, Wis., the fish are dying off in large numbers. The supposed cause of this unusual mortality is an epidemic brought on by the great heat of the past few weeks. This will be unpleasant news to those of our citizens who enjoy so much their annual trip to Madison, armed with the rod.

—A large number of well-to-do-Swiss citizens have purchased, through their agent, Captain Plumacher, forty thousand acres of land near McMinnville, Tennessee. They expect to emigrate and raise stock and wine, and if let alone by the present denizens of that State, will make a very valuable addition to its population.

—On Monday evening a young man named Jacob G. Orth, living in Cleveland, shot his father, Henry Orth, in the breast. The wound though dangerous may not prove fatal. The crime was committed while the young man was in a furious passion, and he delivered himself up to the authoritics immediately afterwards.

—On Monday last, Mr. George Jennings, of North Wilton, Conn., while going through the cavalry exercise with a sabre, accidentally struck his little six year old son upon the neck, nearly severing the head from the body. When the horrified father saw what he had done he attempted to commit suicide, but was restrained by the neighbors.

—A race took place in France recently between two men, one in a one-horse gig and the other in a velocipede. The race was a long one, the contestants starting from Castres at twelve o'clock. The horse car won, arriving at Toulouse at six o'clock, But the race was close for one so long, as the velocipede came in only twenty-five minutes afterwards.

—One of the favorite means of committing suicide in Paris, has been to ascend the Vendome column and plunge from the summit to the ground below. This little amusement became so common that the government has closed the doors of the monument and allows no one to ascend. All the suiciders in Paris are outraged at this new piece of Napoleon's tyranny.

—We had hoped some time ago that Olive Logan had exhausted her little stock of egotistical anecdotes of Paris, and her own unexampled opportunities for toadying the Emperor and nobility, but it seems that our hopes were in vain, as Olive has announced that she is preparing a new lecture entitled "Paris—City of Luxury,"—which she means to inflict upon the poor public.

—Here is a specimen of a Democratic political argument. A Democratic paper published in New England, and as respectable as thas class of paper ever is, in endeavoring to prove that the Republicans tell the most outrageous lies to the ignorant Southerners, deliberately says the Southern negroes are being taught that Seymour always dines off roast black baby, mulatto sauce.

—J. B. Lippincott & Co., of Philadelphia, the most renowned publishers of miscellaneous literature in the State, are about to issue a new novel, called "Tricotrin," by Ouida, "The Journey of Her Majesty's ship Galatea round the world, commanded by the Duke of Edinburg," and a translation of a new novel by the author of "The Old Mamselle's Secret." This last will be eagerly looked for by all lovers of spicy fiction.

—Our stock of impressarii having dwindled down to a few worthless specimens, we are to receive a valuable addition in the person of Mr. Mapleson, late manager of Her Majesty's Theatre, London, who will bring in his train Madame Tietjens, Miss Kellogg and Santley, an unequalled trio of stars. Meanwhile, it is stated that Patti, Lucca, Nillssen and Schneider are all coming over too. We can't think what is to become of Paris and Berlin.

—The victor of Magdala is now called Baron Napier, and to this new Baron was recently presented the freedom of the city of London and a two hundred guinea sword. Meanwhile the English people, through their papers, growl and grumble and throw mud on the Baron's recent achievements—all of which would have been proper enough a little sooner or a good deal later, but coming, as it does, along with the peerage, pension, sword and reception, it may well be looked upon as a piece of cruel bad taste, only possible among the splenetic children of perfidious Albion.

Financial Matters in New York.

Gold Closed at 147½@149¼.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, August 5, 1868.

MONEY AND GOLD.

Money rather more active at 3@5 per cent. for call loans. The fall in Erie some what disturbed the confidence of leaders, and miscellaneous collaterals were scrutenized more closely. Sterling quiet at 9¾@10¼c. Gold active and firmer, opening at 147¼ and closing at 149@149¼. There was great excitement throughout the day, and the custom demand absorbed $600,000, and in addition a leading banker was a heavy buyer. The shipment of $1,000,000 of the Alaska purchase money also had some influence, as well as the fact that enormous quantities of cotton are being shipped from India to England, and which will reach there simultaneously with our new crops. Loans of Gold were made at 3¼, 4, 2½ and 3 per cent. for carrying and flat for borrowing. The report that a German banking house was in trouble proved unfounded.

GOVERNMENTS

Are firmer, but the market only advanced on 81s and 10-40s. Coupons of 1881, 15⅞@16; do. '62, 104⅝@104¾; do. '64, 110⅜@110⅞; do.'65, 112¼@112½; do. new, 108⅝@108¾; do. '67, 108⅝@109; do. '68, 108⅞@109; do 10-40s, 109⅜@109¼.

Border State bonds are firmer and more active; Old Tennessees, 65; New do, 64½; North Carolinas, 72½; old do, 72¾; New Virginias, 53½; Missouris, 93¼.

RAILWAY SHARES.

The Erie problem absorbs attention and unsettles the whole market, which has fluctuated violently. Erie opened at 57½, fell to 56, advanced to 58¼, fell to 57, and finally, under report that Mr. Drew returned to the city and was a heavy buyer, rose to 61½, at which the closing sales were made. RIVER NEWS.

The river continues to recede rapidly at this point with but little over five feet in the channel by the Monongahela marks last evening. The weather yesterday was clear and pleasant and apparently settled.

The Bellevernon cleared for St. Louis about daylight yesterday with about all the freight she could take, and the Kate Robinson left for Louisville in the afternoon with a very good trip. Javens and Given were the pilots on the Robinson, Capt. Marsh Hays in command.

There were rumors some weeks since that negotiations were pending looking toward a consolidation of the two rival Pittsburgh and Brownsville packet Companies. According to an evening cotemporary however, this arrangement must have fallen through, as it seems that the feeling of rivalry has broken out afresh with the resumption of navigation.

It is stated that the towboat Keystone stuck two of her barges at Glass House on Tuesday; we did not learn whether or not she was successfull in getting them off.

—Capt Wm. Dean is loading the Camelia at Cincinnati for Pittsburgh.

—The carpenter of the Emma No. 3 (name not known) died suddenly on the trip up, and was buried at Evansville.

—A Helena dispatch of the 2d says the Tom Stevens left Benton on the 27th, and the Leni Leoti on the 1st. River reported very low.

—The Importer, at St. Louis, is being lengthened, repaired and painted previous to entering the New Orleans and Arkansas river trade.

—Mr. James T. McCord has received the appointment of Boiler Inspector at St. Louis, in place of Mr. Morgan, whose suicide we noticed a few days ago. He filled the position many years ago.

—An Omaha dispatch of the 2d says the river is falling very slowly. The McDonald down at noon to-day; the Columbia expected from below to-night; the Ida left Sioux City on the 28th for St. Louis.

—The following boats were at the Cincinnati Wharf Monday eve'ng. Minneola, Alaska, America; Silver Spray, Abeona, Camelia, Shamrock, J. P. Webb, Ida Rees, Argosy and Mattie Burns. All but the two last named are in commission.

—Capt. Redman D. Bail, of El Dorado wood yard, Arkansas, died on the 29th ult. The Memphis Avalanche, says:

Captain Ball was among the pioneers of St. Francis river. His landmarks to his posterity are worthy of a place; to family and friends generous to a fault, prompt in his dealings, and in truth an honest man. Peace be his; may the turf rest lightly on such as his.

—A late St. Lohis paper says: The consolidation of the N. W. U. & Q. Packet Companies was the grand theme of conversation on the upper levee yesterday, the action meeting with much approval and some displeasure by the friends of both organizations. The Northwestern Union Packet Company will hereafter attend to all offering business between here and Keokuk, but will make no concession to shippers not allowed and practiced by the mail line.

—We clip the following from the Cincinnati Gazette of Tuesday: Our dispatches yesterday morning waked steamboatmen up—especially those who had been expecting two or three months more of low water. The various packet companies had laid their large steamers up, and were running low water boats. To-day they will begin to put their own steamers on the track again. Some of them, however, are receiving paint and repairs. Not expecting a rise so soon, workmen have been taking their time. Now the companies are caught napping. The Cincinnati, Big Sandy & Pomeroy Packet Company, however, will tie up the Robert Moore ond bring out the Telegraph to-day, with the old officers and crew. The U. S. Mail Company will also to-day turn the J. N. McCullough and R. R. Hudson over to their owners and bring out the America and Gen. Lytle—the former to leave Louisville and the latter to leave Cincinnati this evening. The United States is not ready for business. The Maysville Packet Company will accommodate people residing on their line of navigation by bringing out the St. James tomorrow. The Portsmouth packet Bostona, and the Pomeroy and Parkersburg packet Fleetwood, will be out in good time, in excellent condition for business,

ALLEGHENY.

AN ORDINANCE REGULATING NIGHT SCALING.

SEC. 1. Be it ordained and enacted by the Select and Common Councils of the City of Allegheny, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the Mayor be and is hereby empowered to appoint some suitable person to have charge of a flat or boat, to be placed at some convenient point along the Allegheny or Ohio rivers, where all persons who follow the business of night soiling are required to deposit their filth, and no person shall be allowed to deposit the contents of any privy without first procuring a permit from the Mayor, nor shall the same be deposited at any other place than that designated above.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of the person having charge of such boat or flat to keep the same clean, and entirely free from any offensive smell, and shall keep it at all times in suitable condition for use.

SEC. 3. It shall be unlawful for any one to interfere with any person engaged in the business of night soiling, or with the person who shall have charge of such flat or boat.

SEC. 4. The amount to be paid for the said permits shall be fixed and regulated by the Committee on Police, and shall be divided between the person having charge of said boat, as said Committee shall agree upon.

SEC. 5. Any person offending against the provisions of this ordinance shall, on conviction before the Mayor, forfeit and pay the sum of not less than five nor more than twenty dollars, to be recovered summarily, and any person engaged in the business of night soiling, who shall be twice convicted of violation of this ordinance, shall thereby forfeit the right to obtain a permit to follow such business.

SEC. 6. Any citizen who shall feel incommoded by having the said boat or flat placed near their residence or place of business, may make known the same to the Committee on Police, whose duty it shall be, in conjunction with the Mayor, to consider the complaint, and, if they deem advisable, to have the same placed where it will not likely cause any inconvenience.

SEC. 7. Any ordinance or part of ordinance that may conflict with the foregoing be and the same is hereby repealed.

Ordained and enacted into a law this the 23d day of July, 1868.

AN ORDINANCE to authorize the Grading and Paving of Isabella Court and Lindsay's alley, and for the grading of Fountain street.

SEC. 1. Be it ordained and enacted by the Select and Common Councils of the City of Allegheny, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the Committee on Streets be and they are hereby authorized and directed to invite and receive proposals for the Grading and Paving of Isabella Court and Lindsay's alley, and for the grading of Fountain street, and to contract therefor with the lowest and best bidder or bidders, at their discretion.

SEC. 2. That for the purpose of defraying the cost and expenses of the said improvements, there be and is hereby levied a special tax, to be equally assessed upon the several lots bounding and abutting upon said court, street and alley respectively, in proportion to the feet front in them respectively comprised, and bounding and abutting as aforesaid.

SEC. 3. That as soon as the cost and expenses of said improvements shall be fully ascertained, it shall be the duty of the Street Commissioner to assess and apportion the same among the several lots bounding and abutting upon said court, street and said alley respectively, according to the rule above indicated, and thereupon proceed to make demand and collect the same, according to the provisions of the act of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, entitled "An Act defining the manner of collecting the expenses of grading and paving of the streets and alleys of the City of Allegheny, and for other purposes," passed the 30th of March, 1852.

SEC. 4. That so much of any ordinance as may conflict with or be supplied by the foregoing, be and the same is hereby repealed.

GOLD closed in New York yesterday at 149¼.

IT IS understood that ex-Secretary STANTON will make a speech at an early day, for GRANT and COLFAX, probably to be delivered at Cleveland.

THEY HAVE a "Colored Democratic Club," at Memphis with about thirty members. Its meetings are regularly attended and engineered by the leading white rebels of the city.

THE Republicans of West Virginia have made their Congressional nominations as follows: 1st District, Gen. I. H. DUVAL; 2nd do., J. C. MCGREW; 3d do., Gen. JNO. S. WETCHER.

THE Superior Court at Memphis began its present term with three hundred and sixty indictments for felonies of different grades, since when one hundred and twelve more indictments have been returned by the Grand Jury. This shows Memphis to be a pleasant place of residence!

"BRICK" POMEROY states that his new journal, to be started soon in New York, will not be patterned after his Lacrosse Democrat, but will be decent in its tone and will give attention to morals. He seems conscious that the World already fills completely the metropolitan field of blackguardism.

OF THE whole number of 19,853 United States soldiers on duty, last New Years' Day, in the Southern States, 2,725 were employed against the Indians, leaving but 17,128 for Reconstruction purposes, including the sea-coast garrisons. As the average cost of the army officers included, was only $1,057 75 per man, that makes the military expenses for last year for Reconstruction purposes only $18,117,313 72, the largest part of which is justly chargeable to the rebel Democracy whose incendiary policy has thus required it to be kept in subjection.

THE GRANT AND COLFAX CLUB of New Brighton made a fine demonstration on last Tuesday evening—what was intended only as a neighborhood turn-out swelling to the proportions of a mass meeting at which three thousand men and women were present. It was one of those spontaneous outbursts of popular enthusiasm, reviving the grand days of 1860. Hon. RUSSELL ERRETT and J. H. KERR, Esq., of this city, made speeches.

This may be taken as one of multiplying evidences that the people are in advance of the leaders, in genuine apprehension of the magnitude of the crisis and in resolution to meet it in a proper spirit.

THE JUSTIFICATION OF VOTERS.

A very important notification, concerning the naturalization and assessment of voters, appears in our advertising columns this morning. Citizens desiring to perfect the qualification of themselves, or of their friends, as voters at the fall elections, will perceive that arrangements have been made by which the matter can be legally and seasonably accomplished. We earnestly invite to this notice the attention of every reader who can thereby ensure any accessions to the list of those who will support GRANT, COLFAX and the Union.

THE CATTLE PLAGUE.

Such additional facts, as we have been able to obtain, relative to the pestilence amongst the cattle at the East Liberty Stock Yards, serve to strengthen the opinion expressed in yesterday's GAZETTE, as to the extent of the prevailing disease, and also as to the proper measures to be taken for the protection of the public interests. It is ascertained that the disease has manifested itself in the stock-yards at Buffalo, as well as here, having been first observed there about a fortnight since, and being brought thither, as to this point, from Chicago. We learn from East Liberty that the disease is confined to the stock of three dealers, whose names we have, one of whom is said to have some eight thousand head of those Texan cattle on his extensive farm on the line of a Western railway. These three dealers find themselves unable to make any sales at this point, a complete panic having apparently taken possession of the yards. We learn that three car loads, of the specially affected lot of three hundred spoken of yesterday, were shipped East before the railroad company were apprised of the true state of things. To what point Eastward those carloads have gone we do not learn. There were some transactions in cattle yesterday at the yards, but confined wholly to droves not believed to be infected. Some dealers, not finding a market here, have started their droves Eastward by the turnpike.

The infected droves brought here were doubtless of the same character with the lot of 1,500 head, of Texas or Cherokee cattle, which was offered for sale at the Chicago yards on Saturday last, and, being found to be unsaleable, under the stringent law of Illinois, were left in the yards or herded on the adjacent prairie—and will doubtless be brought hither, unless the railway companies decline to facilitate in that way the spread of the contagion.

We take pleasure in stating that the City Inspector has been faithfully attending to his duty at the yards. He has caused the infected droves to be separated from the other stock, and all of the former, when found to be dying, are killed and sent off to the boiling establishment to be disposed of. The agents of the three dealers alluded to interpose the strongest protests against this, and threaten to hold the city responsible for the loss, but the Inspector is firm and faithful to his trust. There is reason for the hope, therefore, that, so far as our city is concerned, the evil may be sufficiently guarded against.

We regret that we are not able to state that the managers of the two railways connecting from the West are adopting such precautionary restrictions as would meet the public demand. If such precautions have been taken, the public are not yet apprized of it. When they are, our citizens will not include these corporations in the same censure which properly falls upon private speculators who, for their own pecuniary profit, contribute to the spread of this disease. Until then, our citizens will have the right to hold these corporations amenable to the charge of seriously and needlessly compromising the interests of this section of country.

RAILWAY BUILDING.

Among the surest tests of the progress of a nation in civilization, may be taken the kind and condition of its highways. In the absence of the means of intercommunication between the different portions of a nation there can be neither commerce nor wealth; and the development of material resources will keep even pace with the construction of facilities for getting to and from market. Three centuries ago the highways throughout the British Islands were in wretched plight, and the social and financial condition of the people corresponded thereto. In exact ratio as turnpikes, canals and railways have been made has been the increase of general prosperity. European Turkey, centuries ago, had an excellent systems of highways, as good as the science of those times suggested; and that country enjoyed a high degree of prosperity. By slow degrees the highways fell out of repair and were finally abandoned, and steadily the tone of civilization receded until the population relapsed into a state of semi-barbarism.

In a small country like England, the task of building highways for the proper accommodation of the inhabitants, is of immense magnitute. After a system of earth roads had been completed, or nearly so, canals were introduced, and when these had been extended in various directions railways were invented and at once asserted the practical preëminence they have maintained ever since, and are probably destined to hold henceforward.

In a broad country like the United States, intersected by vast rivers and ridged by gigantic mountain systems, the job of providing highways is necessarily much more endurous and expensive than in England. The progress made in it so far is surprising and unparalleled. Naturally the first thought was to attain a net-work of earth roads, indispensable however it may be supplemented by other modes of transit. Nor was the conception of this net-work without genius and daring. One road was projected to extend from the Atlantic coast to the Pacific shore, to be constructed as fast as the tide of population should set westward, or the military necessities of the Republic require its employment.

Soon the sagacity and prescience of Mr. DE WITT CLINTON gave a marvellous impulse to canal making, which was felt throughout the larger part of the States then embraced in the Union.

The development was comparatively suspended by the invention of railways. This species of highway was commenced in this country in 1828, in the construction of the Baltimore and Ohio line, followed by that of Albany and Schenectady in 1830. Both of these were, however, worked by horse-power, the honor of introducing the first locomotive being reserved for the Delaware and Hudson Canal Company, on their railroad, extending between Honesdale and Carbondale, in Pennsylvania. Up to the present time, more than forty thousand miles of railway have been completed, and are now in operation. By far the larger portion of the lines are still operated with only one track; but quite a number are already provided with double tracks, in whole or in part, while on one line it has become necessary to institute measures for putting down a third track to meet the constantly increasing repuirements of trade.

But it is not so much our present purpose to treat of the general progress in highway making, as to detail the progress in railway constrnction which has been witnessed during the last few years beyond the Mississippi river; and to this end we avail ourselves of the labors of the Railroad Record.

I. Louisiana.—1. New Orleans and Opelousas Railway, 80 miles. This seems to be the only railway west of the Mississippi, running from New Orleans. 2. Vicksburg, Shreveport and Texas Railway. This road is in operation about 80 miles.

II. Arkansas.—The only railway in Arkansas, in actual operation is we believe: Memphis and Little Rock Railway, 49 miles. This road is not yet completed to Little Rock.

III. Missouri.—This embraces railways running from the three points, Cairo, St. Louis and Hannibal

1.	Cairo and Fulton Railway	37 miles.
2.	St. Louis and Iron Mountain	87 "
3.	St. Louis and St. Joseph	170 "
"	Columbia Branch	22 "
"	Moberly Branch	16 "
"	Brunswick Branch	39 "
4.	Pacific and Missouri River Railway	309 "
"	Southwest Branch	89 "
5.	Hannibal and St. Joseph Railway	206 "
"	Quincy Branch	15 "
	West of the Mississippi in Missouri	990 "

In addition to the above from Mississippi, there are—

6.	Platte Co. Railway, to Atchison	45 miles.
7.	Kansas City Branch	16 "

There are in Missouri, and all west of the Mississippi, 1,050 miles of railway.

IV. Iowa.—The principal points in Iowa, on the Mississippi, for railways, are Keokuk, Burlington, Rock Island, Clinton, Dubuque, and McGregor. The roads constructed are:

1.	Keokuk and Des Moines	162 miles.
2.	Burlington & Missouri River	156 "
3.	Mississippi and Missouri	133 "
"	Muscatine Branch	50 "
4.	Northwestern (Clinton to Omaha)	356 "
5.	Dubuque and Sioux City	143 "
6.	Southwestern	56 "
7.	McGregor Western (to Adams)	96 "
	In Iowa (west the Mississippi)	1,152 "

V. Minnesota.—

1.	St. Paul and Pacific Railway	90 miles.
2.	Minnesota Valley	64 "
3.	Minnesota Central	119 "
4.	Winona and St. Peters	105 "
5.	Southern Minnesota	30 "
	West of the Mississippi in Minnesota	408 "

VI. Kansas.—This is the first of the second tier of States west of the Mississippi, yet organized. Its railways are:

1.	Central Union Pacific	100 miles.
2.	Pacific Railway (E. D.) Kansas Branch	335 "
3.	Leavenworth Railway	33 "
	West the Mississippi in Kansas	468 "

VII. Nebraska.—Union Pacific Railway, 645 miles.

These make up the aggregate miles of railway west of the Mississippi, as follows:

	Miles.
Louisiana	160
Arkansas	49
Missouri	1,105
Iowa	1,152
Minnesota	408
Kansas	468
Nebraska	645
Aggregate west of the Mississippi	3,929

THE leading rebel journals of the South discover that the violent utterances of their politicians are likely to do much injury to their Copperhead allies at the North, and are, therefore, recommending their friends, HAMPTON, VANCE and so on, to "dry up." The caution comes entirely too late, the party at the North having committed itself entirely to the BLAIR platform of anarchy and revolution, according to its boldest interpretation by its Southern authors. Our own Pittsburgh Post, for example, "commends and approves every word it has read from WADE HAMPTON since the nomination." We regret that the Post has lacked the courage to print all of HAMPTON'S speeches as it has read them. Its readers could thus have obtained an authoritative and official exposition of the platform, from the very man who framed the portion relating to Southern affairs. However, its acknowledgment is frank, and places the Post, in common with the Democratic press in general, unequivocally upon the platform of nullification and civil war, as first laid down by BLAIR, and adopted to the fullest extent by the New York Convention. How that Convention came to dispose of the question, is thus clearly stated by the Montgomery (Ala.) Mail:

"When the committee came to reconsider the reconstruction question, it was deemed proper to simply declare the present governments at the South "unconstitutional, null and void." But at the same time the committee, with but a single dissenting voice, acknowledged that the remedy for the unconstitutional proceedings at the south would rest with the Executive. The sentiment of the committee and Convention upon the question of remedy, agreed with the declaration of General Blair, and was satisfactory to every Southern delegate."

PETROLEUM.

For some months past there has been considerable interest re-awakened in the oil production of the Pennsylvania regions, and at times it seemed probable that the old fever, which made a few rich and impoverished thousands, was about to again break forth. But the dangerous point is passed, and no one need watch for another oil mania to sweep over the land during a life-time. The business of producing is now conducted on a strict and legitimate basis, just as much so as that of developing coal fields and mines of other character. The operators risk their money in sinking a new well just as much and no more, than the merchant entering on adventure for gain or loss. Conservatism reigns in the oil regions, and the operation of the many yielding wells is carried on as a regular trade, and new strikes no longer turn men's heads who are out of that line of business. True, there are many persons in the oil locations seeking out available sites for putting down wells in the hope of obtaining a yield of oil, and growing rich suddenly, but they may be said to put no more money in the enterprise than they can well afford to lose.

The recent large developments in the neighborhoods of Pleasantville and Shamburg serve to prove conclusively that the supply of oil coursing in channels or resting in lakes beneath the surface of the prolific fields of Pennsylvania, is inexhaustible. The production continues on the increase and almost every day is marked by the striking of a wealth producing well. The necessary capital for development is employed, as on the first inst. there were upwards of four hundred wells being put down, while a multitude of new leases have been made to parties about to embark in the business in the most prolific sections of the great region.

During the month of July there have been produced 331,641 barrels, and since the first of January 2,021,206 barrels. Notwithstanding this vast yield the markets have not been overstocked, the products being moved and disseminated throughout the world with the same regularity as the crops of cereals. The prices have remained at paying figures, averaging a trifle over five dollars per barrel. During the past seven months the total shipment of crude oil by the railroads penetrating or having connection with the regions and principal cities, reached the enormous amount of 2,273,850 barrels. Of this 50,863,864 gallons were exported, an increase of 17,185,306 gallons over the corresponding period of last year, and 20,679,307 gallons over the corresponding months of 1866.

The magnitude of this business may be inferred from the above carefully prepared figures furnished. It is one of the greatest and steadiest sources of our national wealth, and even yet the trade may be regarded as in its infancy. At the present rate at which it is held, crude oil may be said to have attained something approaching its true commercial value. That prices will ever again degenerate to such an extent as to render even a flowing well unprofitable is hardly probable, as there are thousands of uses to which petroleum is now applied throughout the world which were never dreamed of in the earlier periods of its discovery. The supply is not in excess of the demand, nor will it be unless the production doubles itself, by no means an improbable event in view of the great enterprise and activity of those engaged in developing new territory.

"IN CASE certain things are done, such as an attempt to interfere with the Presidential vote in the Southern States, Pirate Semmes predicts that there will be a new rebellion. He says since the failure of impeachment and the nomination of Seymour and Blair, the Southern people are in no humor to be trifled with."—Wash. Dispatch.

The loyal people of the Republic have no intention to trifle with Southern rebels. That policy was abandoned after the first Bull Run battle. They may as well understand that we mean business seriously, and that another rebellion will be put down as the first one was—only a good deal more so. The humor of the affair we leave to those Copperhead politicians of the North who will, within six months, be swearing that the encouragement they have given to the rebel spirit was only a joke. It was in this way that they attempted to escape from the odium of their avowed sympathies with the treason of 1861.

Then and Now the Same.

When Breckinridge was a candidate for the Presidency, in 1860, the plan of the rebellion, in case of his election, was that he should take possession of the government; call for Southern troops; declare all the acts of Congress objectionable to the South null and void; compel the army to undo all the usurpations of the government and of the States against slavery; expel from the House of Representatives all the Abolitionists and anti-slavery men, and all others save those who were willing to vote as the South demanded; order elections for new members and admit those only who were sound; and with the House co-operating with him and the army, compel the Senate to submit to the reorganization of the Union with slavery made supreme. In that case there was to be no secession by the South, since the South was to be the Union, and the North to be forced to choose between submission and secession.

Frank Blair's programme for himself and Seymour, in case of their election, is almost identical with that of Breckinridge in 1860. He proposes that the President shall treat the laws a nullity and trample them in the dust; that the President, as head of the army, shall overturn the governments of eight States, and by the sword restore the eight rebel governments which once proclaimed allegiance to the Confederacy and eternal enmity to the Union.—Chicago Tribune.

A TRAIN of twenty-three wagons of Mormon seceders has arrived at Cheyenne. They express themselves very much disgusted with the way that they were treated by Brigham. They assert that the portion of those who acknowledge Brigham are not Mormons, but Brighamites, and that he is not a true prophet or the legitimate successor of the head of the Church, but an impostor, who, in the name of the Church, makes arbitrary laws for his own personal advancement and gain. The recent importations will be needed to keep the faith.

THE assignment by Gen. Meade of Gen. O. Shephard to the Department of Texas is regarded in Washington as a wise stroke of policy. Gen. Shepherd has proven to be a protector of loyalty in Alabama, and he will pursue the same policy in his new command.

STATE POLITICS.

THE renomination of Hon. Caleb N. Taylor, the able Republican Representative from the Vth district, composed of Bucks county and part of Philadelphia, seems to be conceded. C. W. Carrigan and Richard Vaux are competitors for the Democratic nomination.

ALTHOUGH there is a good deal of opposition to Mr. Stevens in the Lancaster Congressional district, (the IXth,) no doubt is entertained that the people will decide to retain the service of the venerable statesman.

HON. JOHN M. BROOMALL, for six years the faithful and esteemed Representative from the VIIth Congressional district, composed of the counties of Chester and Delaware, having declined a renomination, five gentlemen have entered the lists as candidates before the Republican party, viz: Dr. D. W. Hutchison, of Oxford; Hon. Henry S. Evans, editor Village Record; Hon. Wayne McVeigh, Washington Townsend, Esq., of West Chester, and Hon. Jesse C. Dickey, of New London.

THERE will be little or no opposition to the renomination of Hon. Ulysses Mercur, in the XIIIth Congressional district composed of the counties of Bradford, Columbia, Montour, Sullivan and Wyoming.

NOT less gratifying to the Republicans in Congress, and throughout the State, is the prospect of the renomination of Hon. Daniel J. Morrell, the best Representative from the XVIIth Congressional district, composed of the counties of Blair, Cambria, Huntingdon and Mifflin.

General H. L. Cake, the popular representative from the Xth Congressional district (Lebanon and Schuylkill counties) has no Republican competitor for the nomination, and will be re-elected by a large majority.

Hon. John Cessna, one of the best and most reliable of all our statesmen, is earnestly pressed for the Republican nomination in the XXIst Congress,onal district. The Bedford Inquirer flies his from its masthead, subject to the decision of the conference.

Mr. Packer is likely to be the Republican candidate for Congress in the XIVth district, in place of Mr. Miller, the present member.

Hon. Wm. H. Kemble, late State Treasurer, has started earnestly after the United States Senatorship. Ex-Speaker Quay, of Beaver county, is said to be acting as his chief engineer.

W. H. Armstrong, of Williamsport, formerly a member of the State Senate, has a chance of succeeding Mr. Wilson in Congress from the Eighteenth District.

There is a possibility that Mr. Van Auken may be thrown overboard by the Democratic Conference in the Eleventh District. He certainly would be if a strong competitor should arise against him in his own county.

It having been given out that the next Republican caucus nomination for United States Senator is "up at auction," a feeling is springing up against that species of traffic which may lead to significant action.

POLITICAL ITEMS.

SCRATCH a Democrat and you'll find a Rebel under his skin.

THE cost of putting down a Democratic rebellion was over $69,000,000.

ONE of the Pendleton escort is said to be wandering in the Rocky Mountains.

MANY of the New York World's subordinates will vote the Republican ticket.

THE Hartford Post announces that McClellan will take the spade for Seymour and Blair.

IT was a great oversight that a "Black Republican" like Thomas Jefferson should have been selected to draft the Declaration of Independence, the corner stone of the republic.

THE Detroit Advertiser says: "The original carpet-baggers were the Democratic patriots who, with a small roll of clothing under their arms, ran away to Canada to escape the draft."

A FRIEND suggests that a mistake is made in attacking Seymour for saying "the war was a failure," because it is now evident that he meant his war; the failure was on the part of his "friends."

AN account of the Kansas State Democratic Convention says the rebel flag actually hung in the Hall during the entire session of the Convention, and was not mentioned or objected to by a single Democrat present.

HERETOFORE the Democrats have objected to the Republican party on the ground that it was sectional—that it had no members in the South. Now they complain that it has more members in the South than it ought to have.

THE Atlanta, (Ga.) New Era says: The violence and abuse of the Southern disunion press is fast destroying with the people, what is called "Democracy." It means present and future ruin to every material interest south of Mason and Dixon's line.

THE Democrats growl because their teachings and the practices of their Southern brethren make it necessary to spend $11,000,000 a month to preserve order and enforce the laws. They charge it to Republican extravagance, and want to have the army abolished. Like the night-prowler, they don't like the big bull-dog loose in the yard.

THE Vicksburg Times find Blair just suited to its rebel tastes. It says: Objection is made down this way to the indorsement of the Blair letter, by a few timid people, on the score of prudence, and yet it was this identical letter of Frank Blair to his friend Col. Broadhead that secured the Missouri hero the nomination for Vice President. We want just such ammunition as Frank Blair uses.

SUNSET COX claimed in his last speech, that "the Democratic party was the one which had in it the principles of Jesus Christ—the law of kindness; it was the party of magnanimity and forbearance. There was but one Christian sentiment in the country to-day, and that was to be found incarnate in the Democratic party." Brick Pomeroy, John Morrissey, and Mike McCoole are members of this pious crowd.

A LEADING Democrat of Port Jervis, N. Y., in a note to the editor of the Union, says: "I can't go Secession and Copperheadism as embodied in the nominations of the Democrats. I don't see it. I believe the best blood in this country was shed in putting down the most wicked and infernal of all rebellions. We must stick to our principles, (all good Democrats and Republicans alike) and stand by the old flag, and tread under our feet the flag of secession and repudiation unfurled and borne by Horatio Seymour. I tell you we must whip them again, and we will do it."

IN a recent conversation with an intelligent Western gentleman, the Chief Justice spoke very strongly against the Seymour and Blair ticket. He said that if it should be elected, all the fruits of the four years' war against the rebels would be lost. On the other hand, he complained with considerable bitterness that the Republican party lines were drawn too closely; that he and many who sympathized with him would like to support the Chicago nominees, but were met only with a coldness and distrust nearly equivalent to repulsion. This, he felt, was uncharitable.

Curious Swindling Dodge in Canada.

A bold and decidedly original swindling dodge has just developed itself in the rural districts west of here, and been successful in deluding several farmers, as far as heard from, out of considerable sums of money. Two sharpers have lately started out, pretending to be engineers engaged in the survey of a new railway line. These scientific gents were first heard of in the township of West Flamboro', and were pushing their enterprise vigorously. Their mode was to appear suddenly in the vicinity of a farmer's residence and commence their engineering operations with as much uproar as convenient, one of the rascals carrying a guide-pole, and the other some hundred yards off, with bogus apparatus, pretending to strike the line. The party whose premises were thus invaded without leave or explanation, made bold to inquire the object of the movement, and was informed that the right of way was all secured, and that his dwelling would have to be removed just twenty feet one side, and that very shortly, to clear the line of the new railway. This startling piece of intelligence led to some argument, resulting in the accommodating engineers proposing to run the line a few yards one side, by going back a mile or so to make the deviation, provided the farmer would consent to pay a small consideration for the trouble and delay, about twenty-five dollars being the demand. The trick was successfully practiced on three parties in the township named, on Wednesday, the imaginary railway line making some astonishing curves to "take in" the different victims.—Hamilton (Ont.) Times, July 31.

The Germans of Indiana.

Another certain presage of a Republican victory in Indiana is the marked zeal with which the German Republicans participate in the campaign for Grant and Colfax, while the German Democracy manifests but little enthusiasm. The magnificent ovation with which Schuyler Colfax was greeted at South Bend was, in great part, a German demonstration, the presence of the German "Tanners" from Chicago being one of the most interesting and significant features of the demonstration. On the day previous to Mr. Colfax's arrival, a German Grant and Colfax Club, numbering 126 members, had been organized at South Bend. This shows how popular Mr. Colfax is among those adopted citizens, who have known him intimately for many years past, and how groundless are the assertions of Democratic papers contending that the bulk of the German vote in Indiana will be cast against the Republican candidates. The spirit manifested by the Germans of South Bend animates their brethren throughout the State; and more German votes will in all probability be cast for Grant and Colfax than were ever before given to the Republican ticket in that State.

THE bridge at Quincy, Illinois, over the Mississippi river, is over a mile in length, including the embankment on the island, situated on the east side of the river. It contains twenty-spans of iron work, resting on piers. The draw on each side of the main pivot is 160 feet. The spans are of the following lengths, commencing with the west shore pier: One of 250 feet, two of 181 feet each, one of 250 feet, two of 100 feet, eleven of 158 feet, then one of 200 feet reaching to the island. The first embankment on the island is 600 feet in length; then comes a trestle bridge of 400 feet across a slough; then 560 feet more of embankment, elevated to grade. Six more spans continue the bridge to the main land. The bridge over the east channel has an iron draw-bridge 625 feet in length.

IS YOUR DISEASE RHEUMATISM?

Many persons, supposing they are suffering from this disease, have applied Liniments, Plasters and other Rheumatic Remedies without obtaining any relief, when in fact the cause of pain is a derangement of the Kidneys. These are small organs, but very important, and any obstruction or interference with its functions are indicated by pain in the back and loins, languor and weakness, difficulty in avoiding and unnatural color of the urine. A Diuretic should t once be resorted to.

DR. SARGENT'S

Liuretic or Backache Pills

Can be relied on for these purposes; they have a direct influence on the cells of the kidneys, assists nature in relieving them of any foreign particles, and stimulates them to a healthy and vigorous action

Dr. Sargent's Backache Pills

Contain nothing injurious, being composed of entirely vegetable remedies; they do not sicken nor gripe—on the contrary they act as a gentle tonic and restores tone to the system, They are recommended by all who who have tried them.

THE BILIOUS SEASON.

Seventy-five per cent. of the population of the United States are more or less bilious at this season. The midsummer sun stirs up the bile as certainly as it evolves miasma from the stagnant pools. It is of the u most importance, therefore, to check the tendency of the liver to diseased action with that incomparable anti-bilious specific—HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. Neglect the early symptoms, and the chances are that they will result in remittent fever, fever and ague, or jaundice. It is presumed that nobody deliberately desires to risk an attack from any one of these. But carelessness may be as disastrous as temerity. Do not procrastinate. As health is the greatest of earthly blessings, it should be every rational being s first care. Whoever chooses to use HOSTETTER'S RITTERS as a preventive now may escape the bilious epidemic and endemics which so generally prevail toward the close of the heated term and in the fall months. Is it not worth while to be forearmed when the means of defence are within the reach of all? The BITTERS are a NATIONAL REMEDY, everywhere procurable, and endorsed by the intelligent of every class Read what leading members of the community, clergymen, physicians, authors, statesmen, men of science, artists, travelers and distinguished soldiers, say about them. On the strength of these credentials give them a trial. They will be found the very best anti-bilious medicine that modern pharmacy has introduced.

CURE OF FISTULA.

DR. KEYSER: I write to thank you for your kindness and scientific management of my disease, for which I called to consult you some time in January last. You will remember that I had a complication of diseases, which finally ended in a terrible fistula, which I had been advised to "let alone," on account of a harassing cough, which it was feared might fasten it on my lungs. I knew that the peculair mode of treating diseases like mine was by a cutting operation, which, if successful at all, would naturally throw the disease upon the lungs or some other vital organ, on account of the suddenness of the cure and the immediate check to the discharge, which I believed was a salutary provision of nature to get rid of some morbid condition of the system. I feel perfectly satisfied that your method of treatment, purifying the system, and local applications to the fistulous part, must cure, if anything could, without cutting, which I find it did, and I am happy to report myself well in every particular, with sounder and better health than I have had for years. I would also add that the applications you made were almost painless, and have left me a new man, with all the energies and vigor of restored health.

Yours, gratefully, I—— C——.

HYDRAULIC COW-MILKER.

WANTED—IMMEDIATELY—All who are looking for business to call and examine the

Hydraulic Cow-Milker,

"A sure cure for aching hands and kicking cows." It milks the four teats of a cow at once. It imitates the calf draw, and stops drawing to swallow. It will milk any cow perfectly dry in three minutes. It is operated by hand, dog, horse or other power. One man can attend several machines, milking as many cows at once. It is simple, durable and self-adjusting; will fit any cow. Milks three-teated cows as well as any. Easily worked, not liable to get out of order, and has proven by practical use to be more agreeable to the cow than hand-milking. A rare opportunity is now offered to enterprising men either to travel or locate in city or country. Call and examine for yourselves.

THE ANTI-TORNADO RAILROAD BRIDGE

Is eminently adapted for our large western rivers, with spans of 550 feet, 80 feet above low water. It will resist the strongest winds, hurricanes, and the heaviest loaded trains will not affect it. I made the discovery on the 25th of June last. A model 6 feet long I exhibit, and give specification on its principles to all parties who take an interest in bridges, and charge 25 cents.

☞ REPUBLICAN

CITY CONVENTION.

The Republicans of the City of Pittsburgh are hereby invited to attend Primary Meetings in their respective Wards on SATURDAY, August 15th, 1868,

Between the hours of 3 and 7 P. M., and there vote for candidates to be placed in nomination for the several city offices, viz:

One person for Mayor of said city.
One person for Controller of said city.
One person for Treasurer of said city.

The voting at said meetings will be by printed or written ballots, containing the names of the candidates voted for, each office on a ticket by itself, and the elections, as far as practicable, will be conducted in accordance with the laws and usages regulating State, county and city elections, the officers taking care to keep a correct list of all persons voting thereat.

The elections will be conducted, wherever it can be done, by the Republican election officers chosen at the last city election; and in wards where such officers were chosen, the officers to conduct the election have been designated, as hereinafter mentioned, by the City Committee.

The Committee suggest that the officers thus designated to hold this election shall voluntarily take the usual affidavit administered to election officers under the laws of the State, so as to shut out all cause of complaint.

The election in the First and Second Wards will be held at the Public School Houses in said wards.

In the Third Ward at the southeastern corner of Sixth and Smithfield streets.

In the Fourth Ward at the Public School House.

In the Fifth Ward in the office of the Clerk of the Orphans' Court, at the Court House, under the supervision of W. B. Neeper, George Glass and R. J. Smith, who are appointed the Board to hold said election.

In the Sixth Ward at the Public School House.
In the Seventh Ward at the Public School House.
In the Eighth Ward at the house of Henry Wilson.
In the Ninth Ward at the Public School House.
In the Tenth Ward at the house of Wm. Brown, at the corner of Penn and Mechanics streets.

In the Eleventh, Twelfth, Thirteenth, Fourteenth, Fifteenth and Seventeenth Wards, at the usual places of holding elections in said wards.

In the Sixteenth Ward at the Wigwam, corner of Pearl and Main streets, under the supervision of Noah G. Craig, Roland Smith and John C. Stewart.

In the Eighteenth Ward at the place of holding elections for what was heretofore known as the 2d precinct of Collins township, under the supervision of David Jones, David Holmes and David Kirk.

In the Nineteenth Ward at Joseph Ganster's house on the Greensburg turnpike, under the supervision of John N. Berlin, Wm. H. Morrison and James Joyce.

In the Twentieth Ward at Beitler's School House, under the supervision of Wm. H. Denniston, Geo. F. Rahauser and John R. Baum.

In the Twenty-first Ward at Ross' School House, under the supervision of A. J. Woolslayer, S. B. Ross and B. W. Morgan.

In the Twenty-second Ward at Irwin's School House, under the supervision of John R. Murdock, William Irwin and Randal Morton.

In the Twenty-third ward at the usual place for holding elections in Lake Peebles township, under the supervision of Joseph Boals, James B. Palmer and James McKibben.

Every supporter of GRANT and COLFAX and the city nominees is earnestly invited to take part in said election, and none other; and the election officers are hereby respectfully urged to use all possible diligence to preserve the purity of the ballot box and secure a fair return of the votes cast.

The election officers, after the votes are counted, will make up duplicate returns thereof, one of which, with the list of voters, shall be placed in the ballot boxes, and the other taken possession of by the Return Judge; and the Return Judges of the several wards shall present the same at a meeting of Return Judges, to be held at the Common Council Chamber, on TUESDAY, August 18th, at 10 o'clock A. M., when they shall cause the same to be added together, and declare the result, the person receiving the highest vote for each office to be declared the nominee.

The Return Judges, at their meeting, will appoint the City Executive Committee to serve for the ensuing year.

The Committee desires to call the attention of the Election Boards to the following resolution, which was ad

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY, August 5, 1868.

There was considerable excitement in regard to the sharp advance in gold to-day and many were the reasons assigned therefor. The latest quotation in the afternoon was 148, which is the highest it has touched for some months; some of the knowing ones predict that it will go to 150, and perhaps higher.

The local stock market is quiet and devoid of anything that is new or important. Money, that is for good borrowers, is easy, while general business is dull. Columbia Oil Stock appears to be looming up again. A sale is reported having been made on Tuesday at 20¼.

The New York Stock quotations as received this afternoon by Mr. Ph. R. Mertz, were as follows: 1881's 116; 5-20's 1862, 114½; do 1864, 110⅞; do 1865, 112⅜; do new, 108⅜; do 1867, 108⅜; 10-40's 109¾. Erie, 59⅝; Fort Wayne, 109⅜; Northwestern, (common.) 81¼; do (preferred.) 81¼; Western Union Telegraph, 34¾.

—We have already mentioned the fact that the provisions of the National Bankrupt law were extended at the late session of Congress, but inquiry has since been made whether the extended provisions permit parties to avail themselves of the act without being able to pay 50 per cent? Or if their assets are less than that, can they be discharged from their indebtedness? The Bankrupt law seems to be part of the permanent policy of the Government. It has not, as some of the papers affirm, a limited term, at the end of which it expires. But, as originally passed, it did not provide for the discharge of debtors who cannot pay 50 per cent., without the consent of their creditors, unless their applications should be filed within a year of its passage; that is, on or before the 3d of March, 1868. The new bill simply extends the time within which the applications of this class of debtors may be filed to January 1, 1869. After that time debtors who cannot pay so much as 50 per cent. must obtain the consent of a majority of their creditors, in number and value, to their discharge; and file this consent with their applications.

—Closing quotations received by James T. Brady & Co.:

Gold, 147⅞; U. S. 6's, 1881's, 115⅝; 5-20's, 1862, 114½; 5-20's, 1864, 111; 5-20's, 1865, 112¼; 10-40's, 109⅝; 5-20's, January and July, '65, 108⅝; 5-20's, January and July, '67 108⅞; '68, 108⅞; June 7-30's, par less ¼ July 7-30's, do ¼ August 119.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY, August 5, 1868.

The general markets present no new features worthy of special notice. The demand for most of the leading commodities continues high being restricted mainly to supplying immediate wants, while so far as values are concerned there are no material changes. As noted yesterday, Wheat is a little stronger, in consequence of diminished receipts, but prices are no higher, and the same is true of Flour.

GROCERIES—The most noticeable feature in the groceries, is a sharp advance in Coffees, in sympathy with the rise in gold. Refined Sugars are reported down about a quarter while Raw Sugars, although in brisk demand have undergone no change. Rice Fish, Teas etc etc, unchanged.

SUGARS—Cuba, 12½c for good grocery 12¾ to 13c for prime; and 14c for choice; Porto Rico—good, 13c; prime, 13½; choice, 14½ to 15c; Clarified Cuba, 14 to 14½c. Refined—Standard Hard, 17½c; A, 16⅝c; B, 16¼c; Extra C, 15¾c; Sugar House, 11¾c.

COFFEE—Rio ranges all the way from 22 to 27c for common to strictly prime. Java 37 to 38c.

SYRUPS—Lovering's $1; Silver Drips, $1; White Drips, $1,10; medium brands, 70 to 80c; common, 50 to 60c; Booth & Edgar Syrup, 90c.

RICE—Rangoon, good, 10c; prime to choice, 11 to 11¼c; Carolina, 12 to 12½c.

MOLASSES—New Orleans, 90 to $1; Cuba, 65 to 70c; Porto Rico, 70 to 85c.

SPICES—Cassia, 80 to 85c; Cloves, 50c; Pepper, 38c; Allspice, 35c; Nutmegs, $1,50.

STARCH—Madison, 8c; Silver Gloss, 12½c, and Corn Starch, 13½c.

FRUITS—Layer Rasins, $4,75 per box; Valentia, 20c per lb; Prunes, 17c; Currants. 14c for new.

BAR LEAD—12c; Shot, $3,50 per bag.

SOAPS—"Babbitt's," 12c; "Oakley's," 11½c; Rosin, 5 to 7c; "Dobbin's," 15c.

CANDLES—Mould, 16c; Star, 23c.

CONCENTRATED LYE—$7,50 per case.

BI CARB SODA—$8,50 per 100.

FISH—White Fish, $9,00; Lake Herring, $5,00; Mackerel No. 1, $22; No. 2, $18,00; No. 3, $13,50; in half barrels, 50c more.

TOBACCO—Black 8s, 10s, ¼s and Louisville Navy, 72 to 75c; Wm. H. Grant's 10s and Navy, 80c; C. & D. Tobacco, 22c to 25c for best.

TEA—The market is firm and prices are higher for new crop. Choice Young Hyson, $1,75; fair, $1,50; common to good, $1 to $1,35; Oolong, 75c, 85c, 90c, $1, $1,25 and $1,35; good Porto Rico, $1 to $1,85, as to quality. Imperial, $1 to $1,85. Japan—Choice, $1,30; fair $1.

BUTTER—Is in steady demand with regular sales at 30 to 35, for fair to prime.

EGGS—In good supply and dull but unchanged at 18 to 20c.

CHEESE—Is quiet and unchanged at 13 to 14 for Western Reserve and Hamburg; 15 to 16 for Factory and 18 to 20 for Sweitzer.

POTATOES—Continue very dull, and unchanged at $3 to $3,50 per bbl.

GREEN APPLES—In good demand, and the market is steady at $3,50 to $5,50 per bbl, for inferior to prime.

GRAIN—There is a steady demand for Wheat with sales of new at $2,10 to $2,15, for prime Red. Old Rye is in good demand, and we now quote at $1,45 to $1,50. New Rye is quoted at $1,25. Old oats are being sold at 82 to 83 on track and 84 to 85 in store. New Oats are quoted at all kinds of prices from 55 to 60; we heard of some contracts having been made at what is considered equal to 62 or 63 delivered here. Corn is quiet and nominally unchanged at $1,05 to $1,10 for mixed and prime Yellow. Barley is about as much of a myth as ever. We do not hear of any new crop having been bought as yet, and prices have not been established.

SALT—Is dull and nominally unchanged at $1,75 to $1,80 per bbl to the trade and $2,00 in a retail way.

SEEDS—There has been no arrivals of new crop Flax Seed and the market is nominal at $2,00 per bush. No demand apparently for either Clover of Timothy Seeds.

HAY—Is still quoted at $20 to $30 per ton from country wagons, according to quality.

PIG LEAD—Unchanged at 10¼c.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is unchanged at 13¾a14c for Shoulders; 16¼ to 18¼c for Ribbed and Clear Sides; and 21½c for Sugar Cured Hams. Prime kettle rendered Lard, 19½c. Mess Pork $28,50 to $29,00. Dried Beef 21½c.

FLOUR—The Flour market is quiet and unchanged; the demand is still restricted to supplying the immediate wants of the retail trade, though the feeling in regard to much lower prices, seems to have been checked somewhat for the present. We continue to quote at $10 to $10,75 for Spring Wheat, $10,75 to $11.25 for Winter Wheat, and $12 to $13 for fancy brands. Rye Flour, $9,25 to $9,50.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY, August 5, 1868.

CRUDE—The Crude market was again exceedingly quiet to-day, not a single sale reported. Spot oil is quoted at 14 to 14½c, the inside figure offered and the outside asked. At Oil City, there were offers to sell in the early part of the day, at $5,50 but in the afternoon these offers were withdrawn, and that figure was offered without finding sellers. It does seem strange that with Antwerp up to 53¾, and the market apparently considerably stronger, that there is nothing doing; in fact spot Oil is no better then it was two or three days since, and both buyers and sellers seem equally indifferent about taking hold.

REFINED—The market for Refined oil although considerably firmer, is very quiet the volume of business being very light. August deliveries seem to be in pretty active demand at 34½ to 34¾ for the first and 34¾ for the last half; September is wanted at 35, and "lines" can be sold at 34½. Sale of 1,000 bbls for August sellers option. at 34½; and 1,000 bbls for the last half at 34¾; the first named sale was made early in the day—a quarter more could doubtless have been realized in the afternoon. The only difference we could see in the market was a firmer feeling, as prices compared with yesterday, have undergone no quotable change. It is but proper to remark however, that at the prices there seemed to be more buyers than sellers.

PITTSBURGH WOOL MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY, August 5, 1868.

The wool market since our last report has undergone some change, both as regards offerings and demand. Some of our farmers who are getting pretty well through with their harvesting operations are bringing their wool to market, which has somewhat enlivened the market, compared with the quietude which reigned a week ago, and the demand has also increased to some extent. There being a continued good demand for medium and low grades in the Eastern markets, the tone of trade in this city is firm and prices, compared with those ruling last week, have slightly advanced. Especially is this the case for the better grades of wools. We give the following as the current quotations for the various grades: Unwashed, 25 to 26c; Pulled wool, 35c; very clean toll wool, 41c; Fleece, common to one-fourth blood, 35 to 37c; one-fourth to one-half, 38 to 40c. one-half to three-fourths blood, 40 to 43; and three-fourths to full blood, 43 to 45.

New York Dry Goods Market.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, August 5.—The dry goods is improving and the market partakes of buoyant tone, influenced by the rapid rise in gold, which is tantamount to advance in all imported goods. Worsted goods, woolen shawls, fine fancy cassimeres and coating goods are most sought for, and in domestic they are offered at comparatively low rates, especially shawls, which have opened surprisingly low. Jas. Roy & Co's shawls opened to-day at $8 for best No. 22 assorted, and $6,75 for No. 18, 67½x135 inches, in high colors. This shawl opened last night at $8,25, being a reduction of $10,50 on each shawl. The No. 16 Droles and Blue mixed, which opened last season at $5,25, are now down to $3,75, which is about gold rates before the war. Of course the trade is purchasing freely at the established figures, and members of certain makes have been all taken already. In cotton trade is still a little quiet, because the supply in jobbers' hands is found ample for present wants, but a good demand is expected ere the close of the month.

Memphis Market.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

MEMPHIS, August 5.—Cotton regular; none offering. Flour—choice grades firmer. Wheat, $2,00a2,10. Corn, 87½. Oats, 55c. Hay, $22, and scarce. Bran, $23. Corn meal, $4,65a4,75. Pork, $30a30,50. Lard, 19a20c. Bacon firm; shoulders, 13¾c; clear sides, 17¾c.

THE ROCKY MOUNTAIN EXCURSION.

Important Points on the Road—A Novel Train — Nebraska — Cheyenne — Prairie Dogs and Rattle Snakes—The Wickedest People of Cheyenne—Woman and Her Influence—Laramie—Benton—The End of the Road.

We have already devoted considerable attention to Omaha and Council Bluffs, in order to foreshadow through their present importance the destiny in store for the multitude of small towns which have sprung up in a night time on the line of the Union Pacific Railroad. The former place has been no more strengthened, supported or nursed by the mighty corporation than will be Grand Island, North Platte, Sidney, Cheyenne, Laramie and Benton. At all of these places the Company propose to erect workshops on an extensive scale. Even now, at North Platte, a distance of two hundred and ninety-one miles west of Omaha, there is quite a large population, a magnificent railway dining room and hotel, and very extensive and substantial machine shops, built of brick and of equal capacity to those we described at Omaha. It is destined to become to the road on which located just what Altoona is to the Pennsylvania Central. Cheyenne will be another important point for machine shops, the Company proposing to erect large buildings there, in a very short time. The first great object of the Company is to push the road through to completion. After it is finished, which will probably be by the 1st of September, 1869, new workshops will be located at the places named.

The train which bore the editorial party to the present terminus of the Union Pacific Railroad deserves a departure from our regular line of letter writing, as few of our readers have ever seen one so put together. The train consisted of a splendid engine, a kitchen car, a dining room car, a sleeping car and an armory on wheels and sitting car. The kitchen contained all the necessarg outfit of a fashionable hotel; the dining car, capable of seating at the extension table twenty-five guests, elaborately fitted up with side boards, wine closets, lunch tables; the sleeping car was a perfect model in its way, and for ease, comfort and luxury, surpassed anything of this character in the country; the armory car was fitted up in a novel manner, having rifle racks at each end, in which rested a dozen or more loaded Spencer pieces, containing each sixteen charges. The latter car astonished the excursionists, and the thoughts of meeting Indians filled their minds with alarm until the conductor assured them that the rifles had never been used against human beings, an occasion never having been offered. These are what are known as the Pullman cars, and travelers out West will have no regret in paying the trifling sum additional demanded for riding in them. They are perfect models in their way, are run on sixteen wheels and fitted out in the most exquisite manner, each one having cost somewhere in the neighborhood of twenty thousand dollars. Under charge of as good officers as ever took out a train—for the Union Pacific Company have used much care in selecting their officials and employés—the excursionists took their departure westward.

NEBRASKA.

The land of this young and promising State is fully equal to that of Iowa. The valley of the Platte, which is some thousand miles long and averages fifteen miles in width, is one of the finest, most beautiful and productive in the world. It is washed by the clear, alkaline waters of the Platte, along whose line the Union Pacific road is laid some three hundred miles. (Graff, Bennett & Co., of Pittsburgh, made a neat plum by purchasing some thousands of acres in this valley near Omaha, some years ago, at a trifling price. Their possessions now are worth several hundred thousand dollars, being the finest agricultural land of Nebraska.)

Fremont is the first station of any importance west of Omaha. It is in an agricultural district and bids fair to become a thriving town. Columbus, ninety-one miles from Omaha, is next struck. It is as yet a small village of probably fifteen hundred inhabitants. This is said to be the exact centre of the Continent, and possesses some little interest to the traveler, when he is told that George Francis Train takes large stock in its future greatness, and that it is the point he proposed building another Chicago on the "Credit Foncier" system. Grand Island is another important local point in the Platte Valley, but is as yet sparsely settled. After passing numerous small settlements, composed of half a dozen or more rude log cabins, we reached North Platte, a very important town, two hundred and ninety-one miles west of Omaha. Here there is a capital railroad dining room, extensive work shops, and several well stocked business houses. Here also commences the rough western styles and customs. As an instance, a waiter in the dining room who had failed to properly understand an order given by a fellow waiter, was shot at twice while the editorial party were dining. The landlord discharged him, as that had been a favorite method with him to settle little matters, "light as air," having shot at guests and waiters with decided wickedness on the least provocation.

One hundred and some odd miles beyond the latter point the Great American Desert or uncultivable regions commence, and as far as the eye can carry is a broad waste of country. The soil is of gritty sand, and a few plants of the sombre artimisia (wild sage) appear, together with blooming thistles and dry looking tufts of grass. Some experienced agriculturalists think by irrigation these vast plains may be made cultivable. The plains are almost completely tunneled by the little cute creatures resembling a rat or a rabbit, called prairie dogs. It is said that the Indians find no more toothsome food than the flesh of these animals. It is related as a curious fact that the enormous rattle-snakes of the plains occupy, in perfect good fellowship with the dogs, their subterranean homes. The train stopped near Pine Bluff to afford the excursionists time to shoot at the dogs, but it was a good thing for the little creatures that editors shoot better with paper bullets than with lead ones.

CHEYENNE.

As we neared Cheyenne, a thriving city of five thousand inhabitants, we caught view of the great chain of Black Hills, which have their base twenty-two miles beyond that place. They appeared from the distance to rise abruptly, and the seeming difficulties of crossing them with the iron horse forced themselves on the excursionists, only, however, to be effectually dispelled when the mountains were reached.

Although Cheyenne is but of a brief year's growth, and has gained during that time a population of fifteen thousand, and lost of the same about ten thousand, still it may be considered a permanently fixed thing and promises brilliantly for the future. It has many fine stores and residences—at least fine for a new point so far beyond the boundary line of civilization. It has three small, but enterprising newspapers, several churches, a small school-house and a comfortably filled graveyard. The municipal government is composed of shrewd business men, and with an adequate police force pretty good order is maintained. The larger class of the people we met were anything but refined, although there are some few families who compose the uppertendom of the place, and who are as genteel as any at home. The excursionists visited a dance-house (travelers you know are excusable) and were furnished with an admirable picture of wild western life in reality. There they found assembled a motley class of men attired in store clothes and sporting pistols and dirks at their sides. At the entrance was a bar fitted out in good style and attended by the usually flashy looking young man of curly locks, tin jewelry and feeble moustache. He retailed, (we only inquired prices for information,) beer at fifteen cents a glass, whisky at twenty-five—prices which made us think that he was an advance missionary of the Temperance cause, for if strong drinks were held at such high prices at home, drunken men on Fifth street would not be so numerous. Opposite the bar was a snow white table where a sharp-witted man showed the crowd the mysteries of three card monte at an expense ranging from five dollars to one hundred. Near by was a faro table with all the necessary paraphernalia. The game going on while we were there was for chips amounting to one thousand dollars. Several gentlemen with us, who seemed to know the ropes, were astonished to find the game so fairly carried on, but it is said to be dangerous in those quarters to indulge in foul play. There is honor amongst thieves and a Cheyenne dance-house is an honorable place. In the centre of the room the dance was going on, rough looking men and women enjoying the sport with a gusto made manifest by the heavy manner in which they brought down their brogans on the sanded floor. The music was furnished by a band of three musicians and was not bad. On one side of the room was a chance-table where the gullable threw dice at fifty cents a throw for a prize out of a show case containing a large collection of trifling articles and a few of more valuable character. Of course none of the latter can be drawn unless by those in the ring, or confederates of the operator. The dance-house is an institution, we believe, peculiar to metropolitan cities, (the wickedest man of New York keeps one,) and we have only referred to its presence in the western cities to show how rapidly civilization has extended westward. But Cheyenne must not be judged by its prominent places of wickedness more than should Pittsburgh by the sketch of Parton in which he held up a second class place of amusement to give strangers an idea of our people, and how they are entertained. Heaven knows we have been imposed on by a low style of entertainment under the name of first class, but did not support such places out of choice so much as the necessity forced by the cupidity of managers. Cheyenne has many redeeming features, and it is not the least enticing place wherein to dwell in the West. It supports eight or ten respectable hotels and has some business establishments like that of S. F. Nuckoll's, for instance, which carry stocks amounting to fifty thousand dollars in value. A few years hence the city will be recognized as one of the very first on the line of the road.

It is the easiest thing in the world to account for the rough state of society in the far West. The tide of emigration has swept only fortune-seeking men to the new localities, and women have as yet been scarcely introduced. Their absence changes the manner of men. They become rough in dress, go unwashed and unshaved, caring nothing for appearances, and fall into the most wicked ways of giving expression to ideas. If they had women in their midst to care for them, and in turn be cared for, they would soon fall into the old forgotten paths of nicety and refinement. Drive every woman out of Pittsburgh, and keep the men colonized together for a year or more without hearing the sweet voice of a fair and loved one, and we venture to say our polished citizens would rapidly degenerate into as rough and uncouth beings as the very worst found West. We hope the experiment won't be tried.

Twenty miles beyond Cheyenne the first formidable range of the Rocky Mountains are struck, and their ascent to the summit has been accomplished in the most successful manner. Sherman, thirty-three miles west of Cheyenne, is the summit, the highest point on the road, being 8,262 feet above the level of the sea and 7,292 above Omaha. From Cheyenne to this point the road rises with a grade of 70 feet to the mile. The grandest piece of engineering is that which cuts through Granite Cánon, a pass between two monstrous red granite mountains and over a deep chasm of rugged rocks. The bridge at this point is very substantial but will be replaced, as will all others on the road, by an iron structure before many days. The scenery from Sherman is very grand, the snow-capped mountains piercing the clouds being observable in the distance and the ragged terraced ranges luring up on all sides.

Laramie, 572 miles west of Omaha, is struck after reaching the plains, and is a city almost as large as Cheyenne, having a population of some three thousand souls. It will hardly ever prove a great centre, but will doubtless become a point of considerable importance.

Benton, a town of a month old, is one of about ninety or a hundred tents of white canvas thrown over wooden frame work. It boasts of about fifteen hundred of a population, and is the newest and consequently the wickedest settlement in the West. Here prosper dance houses, gambling hells, faro banks, beer saloons, museums, grocery stores, &c. No church has yet been put up, nor school established. We could discover no children in the town. This point is sixteen hundred and fifty-six miles beyond Omaha, and derives its name from Fort Benton, a military post near by, where are stationed five hundred United States troops.

Beyond Benton the excursionists were carried on a smooth new road from two weeks down to two hours old, a distance of fifty-five miles, and getting off stood at the terminus. Away out so far as the eye could carry were multitudes of men working, like pioneers to an army, but how they were laboring and what kind of work they performed we reserve for another time.

[NOTE.—Since returning home your correspondent has been much questioned regarding emigration to the far West to points adjacent to the line of the great Union Pacific Railroad. We have already ventured our candid advice in that direction. It is generally a safe rule in life to forsake no good thing for the possibility of receiving a better one. The West is destined to become thickly populated. Everything points that way. New cities and towns will spring into existence along the great line of rail, and no estimate can be formed of the vast mineral and agricultural wealth centered in the million of broad acres which now lie on its different sides, undeveloped. But there are no good reasons why those who are enjoying health and happiness at home, who can make comfortable livings without any great or extraordinary effort, rushing into the anything but rose-tinted life of the pioneer of civilization. The West needs an unlimited number of men with brains, energy and capital. If you flatter yourself into the belief that you possess the first two essentials and are willing to be disappointed in your judgment of your capacity, then emigrate West. If you have capital you can invest it profitably almost any place in that direction. All you have to do is to invest and wait. But Europe is pouring into the Western States and Territories enough men and women to prevent your being missed. Under their skill, prudence economy and thrift the agricultural districts of our greatly unknown country will not remain long undeveloped. Their touch is like magic. Out of rocks and sand patches they can work wonders. Of pleasure most of their lives will be as barren as the soil on which they settle. Their children will reap the advantages of their hard toil, just as many of you do now from the hard working people who went ahead to beat down the way to make your path smooth and easy. Wages are good in the West and living comparatively cheap. Indeed, it is much easier to get a living than to live to get it, so rough are the ways of the West. We can point our finger at scores of persons who have made large fortunes in the West in very brief periods, but such phenomena are not scarce at home. Fortune favors the few be they in New York or New Mexico. Just as soon as the Union Pacific Railroad shall have been completed, the tide of emigration will flow from all parts of the country and settle along its line, and probably it is the best thing imaginable for some classes of persons to be there in the advance of the general flood. Good farmers will be then wanted, good mechanics desired, shrewd merchants required. The day is not very far distant when we may say, "now is the time, strike for the West," but as yet we keep back that advice, not wishing to be responsible for any mistake made in that direction by parties who might do better by remaining home.]

SAFETY FIRE JACKET.

SECURITY AND COMFORT FOR THE TRAVELING COMMUNITY.

J. B. HARRIS' SAFETY FIRE JACKET,

Car Heater and Moderator,

For SMOKE AND HOT AIR FLUES, dispensing with the use of Stoves and Fires in or about the Passenger or Baggage Cars, with the attachment to graduate the heat to any temperature that may be desired without the possibility of firing the car or cars to which the Jacket may be attached.

Having obtained of the United States Letters Patent for a Safety Jacket which is warranted to resist the most intense heat that may be applied to it in the position and purpose for which it is intended. It is a sure protection from accidents by fire, originating from defective flues, or where iron pipes are used as conductors for smoke or heat. It is applicable to all piping that may become overheated, and is warranted to give perfect satisfaction where wood or other combustible material may be placed in close proximity thereto. I am now ready to apply my invention to stores, dwellings, factories, ships, steamboats, railroad cars, &c., wherever pipes as conductors are made dangerous by being overheated and security desired. I will sell, on application, rights to manufacture or to use the above invention; also, territorial rights, to such as may wish to engage in selling privileges, either by State or county.

Daily Prayer Meeting—From 12 M. to 12:30 o'clock at the Rooms of the Christian Association, No. 23 Fifth street.

New Floor.—A board floor is being laid in the lock-up.

Pittsburgher Soliloquizing.—Brush or Jeremy; that's the question.

Receipt for Cholera.—Partake freely of green corn. The markets are well supplied with it.

At it Again.—The rivalry between the Monongahela river packets has been revived inall its force since the opening of navigation.

Ruffled.—The meat market has been slightly ruffled during the past few days on account of the excitement on the diseased cattle question.

Progressing.—Work on the Cathedral tower is progressing rapidly. When finished it will present a handsome and imposing appearance.

Pic-Nics seem to be quite the rage just now. People enjoy the exchange of heat, dirt and smoke for cool retreats and invigorating air, if it is but for a few hours.

Forcible Entry.—Catharine Williams made information before Alderman Herron against John Waldier for forcible entry and detainer. Waldier was arrested and committed for trial.

Held.—Catharina Welsh made information yesterday against Wm. Devine for assault and battery. Devine was arrested on a warrant issued by Alderman Lynch, and after a hearing committed for trial in default of bail.

Camp Meetings.—Poeple who are in the habit of attending camp meetings will have abundant opportunity to indulge in it during the coming season. The number to be held, according to announcements, is unusually large.

Held for Hearing.—A man named Keoh was brought before Alderman Donaldson, yesterday, charged by Mr. Kohler, a furniture manufacturer in Allegheny, with false pretences. The accused was arrested and held for a hearing.

Track Laying.—The Pennsylvania Railroad are having a new track laid on Liberty street, below St. Clair. The new rail will possess some advantage over the old, in being much wider in the flange, which admits of a greater surface for friction.

Trains Delayed.—The locomotive of a coal train on the Panhandle railroad ran off the track at Saw Mill Run yesterday morning about eight o'clock. After considerable trouble and work it was replaced, but the morning trains on the road were all delayed about two hours by the occurrence.

New Use for a Hatchet.—Elizabeth Richey made information before Mayor Blackmore, yesterday, against Mrs. Welsh for surety of the peace. The parties reside in South Pittsburgh, and Mrs. Richey alleges that Mrs. Welsh threatened to chop her into kindling wood with a hatchet. A warrant was issued.

Hit Her Child.—Mary Ann Beeber made information yesterday before Alderman Mullen against John Sweible for felonious assault and battery. Mary says that John struck one of her children back of the ear with a stone, severely injuring it. The parties reside in the Third ward, Allegheny. The matter was finally compromised.

Alleged Larceny of Clothing.—Mrs. Martha Tonks, residing on Chestnut street, Allegheny, alleges that Elizabeth Evans, lately a domestic in her employ, stole from the house a silk dress valued at thirty dollars, and a fine shirt worth three dollars and fifty cents. A warrant for Elizabeth's arrest was issued by Mayor Drum.

Small Business.—The Allegheny Mayor's office did a small business yesterday. A couple of females of doubtful virtue, who annoyed the inhabitants in the upper part of the town, were arrested, and after giving the officers considerable trouble they were finally lodged in the lock-up. This formed the bulk of the business during the day.

Receiving Stolen Iron.—Thomas Morgan was arrested yesterday, charged on oath of the foreman of the iron works of Coleman, Rahm & Co. with purchasing from boys iron which had been stolen from their establishment, he knowing such to be the case at the time of the purchase. Morgan keeps an establishment on Penn, near Mechanic street. Morgan was arrested and will have a hearing to-day.

Free Exhibition.—Napoleon Young, the pedestrian, who commences his walk of one hundred miles in twenty-four hours at Oakland Park to-day, gratified the loungers around the Postoffice in Allegheny last evening with an exhibition of his powers. He went around the square in a very short space of time, and certainly seems like a walkist of no mean pretensions.

Filling In.—Workmen are engaged with the mud train filling in the trestle work on the Connellsville Railroad at Four Mile Run. The dirt is brought from Frankstown, and it is the intention to fill in the trestle work up to a level with the track. This will be quite an improvement and when completed timid passengers who have to travel frequently over the road will be relieved of a source of affliction.

A Dispute.—Ann McCune and Bridget McFadden got into a dispute regarding their nationality, which lead to blows, the muscular Bridget coming out the champion. Ann, incensed at the termination of the affair, made information yesterday before Alderman McMasters against her opponent for assault and battery. The parties reside at Osceola Station, on the Connellsville Railroad. A warrant was issued.

Struck with a Stone.—Willis Dangerfield, an aged colored man, made information before Mayor Drum yesterday, against Chas. Kimberly for assault and battery. The prosecutor alleges that Kimberly threw a stone and struck him on the head with it, which felled him to the earth. At the hearing Dangerfield failed to clearly identify the accused as the party committing the assault on him and he was discharged.

That Watch.—The watch which was stolen from a German named John Kober, while in a colored bagnio on Overhill street, on Monday evening, the particulars of which we published in yesterday's issue, was found in a neighboring house of similar repute, by officers Messner and Gumbert. One of the inmates of the house in which the robbery occurred was arrested and confessed to having taken the watch, but denies the theft of the money. She is kept in the lock-up, and the officers are after the other parties.

Taken to Passavant's Infirmary.

On Monday was noticed the finding of a German named John Schwendinger suffering from insanity, produced by sunstroke, on road a in Lower St. Clair township. The unfortunate man was brought into court, and a hearing on an application to have him removed to an asylum was fixed for Wednesday morning, the victim in the meantime remaining in the county jail. Yesterday morning, his condition being very much improved, an order for his removal to Passavant's Infirmary was issued and he was immediately conveyed thither. It is quite likely that his reason will be entirely restored in a short time, as he is improving rapidly.

True Love Never Runs Smooth.

Tuesday afternoon the door of Alderman Strain's pleasant little sanctum was darkened by a goodly procession of colored individuals of all ages, sizes and sexes, who ensconced themselves inside the room and waited patiently as if in expectation. To get a proper understanding of this rather singular proceeding, the reader should glance at the docket of the courteous Magistrate under date of the 13th of July last. There will be found entered a rather serious charge against a coal-colored individual named Charles Cole, in which a lady of he same persuasion, Miss Martha Hackett by name, appears as the prosecutor. Then the trouble should be taken to follow up the charge, which will result in first finding the unfortunate Charles in the county jail next out on bail, and finally in an interview with the fair Martha, proposing to settle the dispute by fulfilling his promise of marriage. This agreement was the cause of the aforesaid procession, consisting of the relatives and friends of both parties, called together in pursuance thereof to witness the interesting ceremony which makes one of two people. They had not waited long before the twain put in an appearance, and the opening exercises of the occasion were about to commence, when suddenly the countenance of the ought-to-be-happy Charles darkened, and he declared emphatically that "dis yah ce'emony" should not go on. The principal actor on the other side, amazed and almost dumbfounded by this turn of affairs, as well as she was able demanded the reason of this mysterious change. She was answered. Up spoke the now thoroughly aroused Charles and made his explanation, which was to the effect that she, the expected partner of his future joys and sorrows, had attended a pic nic the day before and, as he had just been informed, had promiscuously flirted with the males present totally regardless that one had a claim on her attentions who would brook no rival. Great was the confusion and uproar when the gentleman had thus expressed himself, but the lady, rising superior to the occasion, indignantly refused to make any explanation of her conduct on the previous day or even deny the impeachment. Then came the time for the interposition of friends, but all was of no avail. Each was firm and the ceremony could not proceed. When that fact became evident the procession again formed and slowly filed out and away from the scene of disappointment, all but the victorious Charles, who, after this denouement, was immediately surrendered by his bail, and accommodated with a free boarding house as soon thereafter as possible. Verily "true love never runs smooth."

Base Ball.

Base Ball has been languishing somewhat during the warm weather, but with the approach of cooler days affairs are beginning to revive a little, and the prospect is that the remainder of the season will witness considerable activity in this noble game.

The Allegheny Club are in receipt of letters from a number of the most prominent clubs in the country, and it is quite probable that matches will be arranged with some of them.

The Cincinnati Club will arrive in the city on Friday, and on Saturday the game between them and the Allegheny will take place in Union Park.

On Monday afternoon they will play a game with the Olympics, who are at present on a Western tour, but are expected home before that time. During their stay the Cincinnatis will be the guests of the Allegheny boys, who hade a special tact in entertaining all visitors. The Cincinnatis bring a strong nine with them, but they will have to play well if the laurels are to be borne away with them.

The Olympics, on their tour thus far, have not been quite so successful as was expected. In their first game with the Mears Club of Steubenville, they came off with flying colors, but in the game with the Independents, of Mansfield, they suffered a defeat, the score, however, being a very close one, standing twenty to twenty-one. The game is spoken of by those who witnessed it as being one of the closest matches ever played in that vicinity. But for a little careless playing of the Olympics toward the close, the result would probably have been different. Al. Pratt, the lightning pitcher, travels with the Olympic, but will not play with them in the match on Monday against the Cincinnati.

Dan Ewer, of the Allegheny, has had a sore finger, which it was thought would prevent his playing on Saturday, but is getting better and will be on time.

Allegheny Burglaries.

Yesterday morning, between one and two o'clock, some thieves entered the residence of Mr. George B. Bidell, on Western avenue, Second ward, Allegheny, and stole a silver hunting case watch, a couple of linen dusters and a linen coat. An entrance was effected to the house through one of the rear windows, after which the thieves broke open a door in the hall. Strange to say, notwithstanding all this manipulation, none of the family were alarmed and the booty was successfully carried off. A slight noise was heard by one of the servants, who paid no attention to the matter, thinking it was some person getting up to wait on a sick child.

At a somewhat earlier hour a colored boy employed in a bakery near by saw three persons climbing over a fence in the rear of Mr. Gotleib Bierstadt's residence, near the lower end of Beaver avenue, Allegheny, one of whom seemed to be a young woman. Yesterday morning the family of Mr. Bierstadt discovered that a number of articles of household furniture had been carried off. The stolen property consisted of a valuable hat rack and a large mirror valued at twenty dollars. No clue to the operators has been discovered.

United States District Court—Judge M'Candless.

In the admirality branch, in the case of J. E. Remley yet al. vs. Steamboat Traveler, the Court appointed J. H. Bailey, Esq., commissioner to distribute the fund in the registry of the Court,

In the bankruptcy branch, on motion of J. S. Ferguson, Esq., and on petition filed, Otis Brown, a bankrupt, was granted leave to amend schedule B, No. 5, attached to his petition.

In the matter of Daniel Gould, a bankrupt, upon certificate of Register Harper, to the effect that specifications of objections to bankrupt's discharge were not filed within the time required by law. Court ordered the last examination to be held on the 5th inst.

Lewis J. Stone, of Tioga county, and Wm. H. Mc Coy, of Greene, were granted final discharges and awarded certificates to that effect.

Planchette.

Perhaps no curiosity or mysterious bit of machinery has attracted so much attention in this century as the household sybil entitled "Planchette." It is a simple contrivance which baffles the acutest intallect, and yet when explained is plain to a child. It answers questions with a faithfulness and solves enigmas of the future in a manner hardly creditable. To afford sensible and rational amusement out of philosophical means we know of nothing better than "Planchette." It seems to illustrate spiritualism and to bind one in deep mystery, and yet is capable of simple explanation. The best assortment of these great intellectual toys, for both old and young, is at M. A. Evans & Co.'s, No. 59 Fifth street. Readers should not fail to possess one of these great sources for amusement, as they are highly instructive and are calculated to benefit the mind.

The Star Chamber System.

It has been customary in the administration of the Mayors who have preceded Mr. Blackmore in that office to permit reporters of the daily press free access to the tombs, but the present incumbent of that important office, together with his Chief, have seen fit to promulgate an order forbidding them entrance. This order was enforced last night for the first time, and, as the Mayor is a candidate for re-election, we presume it was made in order to hide the worst side of his administration from the public view. The reporters of the Post, Commercial and GAZETTE were peremptorily refused admittance to the tombs by Captain Reed, a faithful officer, who cannot disregard orders from the powers that be. Perhaps Mr. Blackmore and Chief Greene may strengthen themselves in the estimation of the public by adopting this "star chamber" arrangement, but if they do so they will accomplish more than any of their predecessors. We have a brief chapter on the management of the tombs in store for our readers, which may not show Mr. Blackmore's administration in the rosy light some folks are foolish enough to regard it. It is probable that the tombs were occupied last evening by something of higher rank than the drunken vags and disorderlies, but it is more likely that the prisoners were so promiscuously huddled together without regard to color or sex that His Honor deemed it prudent to exclude the reporters. He is not so strong that a gust of wind may not blow him from the surface, and this last exhibition of weakness will serve to demonstrate to the public that neither he nor his Chief are the great magnates many have supposed them to be. At best the Mayor and Chief are welcome to all the glory which will follow the inauguration of the "star chamber" system in the tombs.

Republican County Executive Committee—Encouraging Reports—Communications.

The Republican County Executive Committee held a regular meeting at their headquarters, City Hall, yesterday afternoon at two o'clock. Hon. Russell Errett presided, with Col. J. H. Stewart as Secretary.

There was a very large attendance, every district in the county being represented, from all of which encouraging reports were received of the progress of the work.

The Secretary presented a communication from Hon. Galusha A. Grow, Chairman of the State Central Committee, stating that Gen. Carl Schurz would be in the city August 25th, and would address a meeting of his German fellow citizens.

On motion, the Chairman was instructed to appoint a Committee of German Republicans to receive Gen. Schurz and make the necessary arrangements for the meeting to be held in City Hall.

The organization of two more Grant and Colfax Clubs was reported, one in Marshall township, with Thomas Robinson, Jr., as President, and William Boner Secretary, and the other in Harrison township, with S. A. Drury President and J. J. Miller Secretary.

Col. T. M. Bayne was proposed as a member of the Committee, and under the rules laid over for action at next meeting.

On motion, adjourned.

The Chartiers Railroad.

Another adjourned meeting in the interest of the Chartiers Railroad enterprise was held at Canonsburg on last Saturday afternoon, Colonel Hopkins occupying the chair and Capt. C. W. McDaniel and W. S. Moore acting as secretaries.

A list of the subscriptions was presented to the meeting by Wm. McDaniel, Esq., showing an aggregate of $258,309, with one book not yet returned, on which was about $4,000.

The following resolution was adopted unanimously:

Resolved, That if the Chartiers Railway accepts the subscriptions to the stock of said Company in their present form, it is urgently recommended to all those who have made such such subscription to pay the same in monthly instalments, as proposed by Judge Jewett in his letter of the 23d of July, 1868, and this meeting hereby expresses its confidence that the calls of said Company, upon that basis, will be generally responded to by said subscribers.

The Committee on Releases reported that, with but few exceptions, releases had been obtained all along the proposed route, and that they had encouraging hope that all would shortly be granted.

The meeting then adjourned to meet at the same place on Saturday of next week, August 15th.

The Cattle Disease—Slaughter of the Condemned—Preventives Adopted, &c.

The excitement occasioned by the publication yesterday of the extent of the cattle disease at the East Liberty yard, was intense, and the public resolved with perfect unanimity to purchase no more beef till the danger was passed. This resolution advanced the price of fowl and fish, as a great demand was created for these substitutes for sirloins and roasts. Mr. Hoosac, Meat Inspector of the city, an official we feel that we wronged in our aspersions yesterday, spent the greater part of yesterday in examining stock held at the East Liberty yard and condemned some fifty head. The cattle not attacked with the disease have been taken to pastures adjacent to the county in the hope of saving them. It is thought that the disease will be effectually checked at the yards, and that two weeks hence no danger may be anticipated as to the spread or existence of the pestilence in our vicinity. In the meantime we again caution our readers to use due caution in the purchase of meat for their tables.

Important Arrest.

Two young men, named Bliss and Ward, were arrested for burglary yesterday, having gained admittance to a store on Liberty street, next door to the Mansion House, on Monday morning before daylight, and forced open a safe in the office by means of gunpowder. The efficient Chief of Police had the young men arrested, and as a third one remains to be taken the reporters of the press are denied any particulars of the proceedings. We hope the third offender will be secured, as the police are now on his track and will make the arrest unless the fugitive is advised of the efforts being made to effect his capture. We are compelled to secrecy, and trust none of our readers will tell the young man that we have violated the rules of the Star Chamber and published his threatened danger.

Alleged Sharp Practice.

Peter Grant alleges that Frederick Smith has been playing a sharp dodge on him and he yesterday made information before Alderman McMasters against him to that effect. He states that Smith represented to him that he had bought the wreck of the steamboat J. S. Cosgrave, which was sunk in the Monongahela river, above the railroad bridge, and that he wished to have it raised. By such representation Grant says he was induced to go to work on the wreck, but he subsequently discovered that Smith was only a laborer like himself, and that the said Smith had lifted the money due him for his work and made off with it. Grant thinks that fourteen dollars and fifty cents is too much to lose, and he therefore enters suit for its recovery. A warrant was issued.

A Remarkable Cure.—Wm. S. Thompson, Esq., of Butler county, Pa., who was entirely deaf in one ear, applied to Dr. Aborn, 134 Smithfield street, and in five minutes' time had his hearing perfectly restored.

MORTGAGES.

Same day eleven mortgages and thirteen Allegheny City ordinances were filed of record.

The Controllership.

MESSRS. EDITORS: I have taken pains to examine into the merits of the respective abilities of the two prominent candidates presented for the very important office of City Controller. I will say nothing detrimental to the cause of Mr. McGowan, but will insist that no better choice can be made than Thomas Steele, Esq., who I dare say is better acquainted with the affairs of Pittsburgh than any other person in Allegheny County. His name is above suspicion, and the insinuations of inability and lack of devotion to the interests of tax-payers contained in several articles published in the Inspatch, are false to an extreme and unworthy publication in any journal. Mr. Steel has been identified more or less with every great movement made in our city to advance its character and insure its importance. He has given evidence of great executive ability, of clear insight and decided knowledge on municipal matters, and has brought with him into every position he has occupied decided tact and experience. For Controller no better selection can be made, and if his claims are laid aside the people will show a sorry lack of appreciation for a faithful public servant and one in whom they can safely repose the largest measure of public confidence. Mr. Steel's connection with the City Hall Commission is no closer than that of any other gentleman composing the Board. He has no salary and has not collected a single cent for his services thus far, his only and greatest desire being to have erected at lowest possible cost a building which will reflect credit to our municipality. Let him be elected and my word for it the affairs of the city will be guarded and watched in such a manner as will prove acceptable to the heartiest foe of Mr. Steel. JUSTICE.

Fond of Beer.

Jno. Bowers is doubtless fond of beer, but if the statement of Andrew Walls can be relied on, he took a very doubtful method of gratifying his taste in this respect. Walls alleges that he purchased a half keg of the beverage from S. Herde, for which he paid one dollar and a half. Herde says he gave it to a milkman named William Fisher to convey to Walls' residence. While on his way to the place the milkman states that Bowers stopped him and said he owned the article, and that it would be unnecessary for him to carry it any further, and accordingly he passed the keg over to him. A warrant was issued.

Fire in Allegheny.

Yesterday about noon an alarm of fire was struck from box 31 of the Allegheny fire alarm. The alarm was caused by the burning of the roof in the rear portion of the house occupied by Mr. Henry Edwards, on Jackson street, a few doors from off Federal. The fire is supposed to have originated from a defective flue. The damage done was but slight and will probably be covered by twenty-five dollars. The fire department was on the ground in full force, but their services were not required, the "Frienship Hose Company" having succeeded in promptly extinguishing the flames.

Six Months' Gas.

The following is the bill of the Gas Company against the city for the first six months of the present year:

8,949,557 cubic feet at 75c per M	$ 6,712 15
United States tax on same, 25c per M	2,237 37
	$ 8,949 52
Forty-nine new street lamps, with fittings, $50 each	$ 2,450 00
Repairs to lamp posts	493 37
	$11,892 89
By 6,250,000 feet of gas without charge, according to the act of Assembly, at 75c per M	$ 4,687 50
Total bill	$7,205 39

Error.—In attributing to Mr. Aiken, the well known undertaker, a negligence to fully perform his duty as undertaker, to the Coroner, in the case of the body of a drowned man found adhering to the wheel of a steamboat, an evening contemporary did him great injustice. He was not notified until the body had become loose and floated down the steam several hours before. Mr. Aiken is a prompt and efficient undertaker, and the Mail was in no respect correct in holding him up for censure in this case.

Holtzheimer's Dining Saloon, for ladies and gentleman, is one of themost popular places of its character in the city. Meals are served in the very best style at all hours, and the tables are always filled with the luxuries of the season, and a competent corps of cooks and attendants always on hand, who take pride and pleasure in waiting on customers. The Continental is one door below the Postoffice, Fifth street.

Ice Cream.—During the past few weeks the amount of this article consumed in this city would astonish a New York dairyman. The first class trade is largely monopolized by P. H. M'Guire, No. 105 Fifth street, whose ice cream saloon is one of the coolest and most inviting in the city. Meals are served at all hours at the most reasonable prices.

A complete stock of stationery, embracing all the various styles of plain and fancy note paper, foolscap and letter paper; aslo, every variety of envelopes, pens, pencils, etc, are kept at the well known establishment of Col. J. D. Eagan, Sixth street, near Smithfield, and will be sold upon the most liberal terms.

Facts that Will Stand Investigation—Sewing Machines are a Matter of Interest to the Public.

There are certain sewing machine agents of this city who would like to make the public believe that they sell a great amount of machines, more than their neighbors; but taking the amount received by railroad we find that our Noiseless Machine falls very short, as the canal is not in operation, and they certainly don't get them by the old road wagons in these progressive days.

The public now possess the satisfactory knowledge that there are more Weed Sewing Machines sold in Pittsburgh and vicinity than any others: and as the Weed office don't pay twenty-five hundred dollars rent, some of the Machine Agents will doubtless feel the effects of the Weed, as where one is planted it is always followed by others, as the reference list shows, and in some cases in less than twenty-four hours.

By paying a visit to the Weed Office you can see new machines of other makes, which have been taken in part pay for the Weed Machine.

Most Bitters of the present day that are loudly puffed through the newspapers as having great curative properties are vile compounds and base impositions, containing no medicinal virtues whatever, and are really very poor whisky beverages, and, instead of acting as a stimulant and tonic, have a tendency to weaken the stomach by entirely destroying the coating. The public should therefore be very cautious and purchase none but Roback's Stomach Bitters, which have stood the test as a remedial agent for many years, and are really as their name indicates, a stomach bitters and not a beverage. They combine the properties of the best tonic and a stimulant—a laxative, an efficient and anti-bilious agent and the best stomachic known to the world, and when taken in conjunction with Roback's Blood Pills, are the safest and surest preventive against all bilious derangements, thoroughly regulating the whole system and giving tone to the digestive organs.

They are highly recommended as an invigorating tonic to mothers while nursing, increasing the flow of milk, and for convalescents, to restore the prostration which always follows long-continued sickness, they are unsurpassed. No household should consider themselves safe from the ordinary maladies without these invaluable medicines. They can be obtained of any druggist. TTSF

If the heated term is over, the demand for ice cream and summer refreshments still continues as great as ever, and no where in the city will be found a better article, served up in cleaner style, than at the first class saloon of P. H. M'Guire, No. 105 Fifth street. Ladies and gentlemen will also find there a splendid assortment of confectionery and sweet-meats. Meals are served up at all hours at the most reasonable prices.

The Continental.—Holtzheimer's Continental Saloon, Fifth street, one door west of the Postoffice, is one of the best dining saloons in the city. Mr. H. has extensive experience as a caterer, and gives the matter his entire attention, and the result is that his extensive and comfortable rooms are filled with customers at all times.

Scientific and Literary books, and works on art are selling at half price at Col. J. D. Eagans, as are also Sabbath school library books. Cash paid for second hand books, novels, magazines, &c.

All the late magzaines and illustrated papers will be found on the counter of this establishment.

Intelligence Offices are one of the greatest conveniences of the age, as will be fully demonstrated by calling on Colonel J. D. Egan, Sixth street, near Smithfield, who has recently embarked in the business. Persons in search of employment will do well to give him a call.

W. W. Moorhead, No. 81 Market street, is offering an elegant stock of goods to his customers at clearance prices. It embraces all the latest styles of lace goods, trimmings, embroideries and a general assortment of straw goods.

McBride & George at the original Diamond Front Grocery, No. 164 Federal street, Allegheny, keep a full supply of family groceries and provisions. Give them a call, all you that are keeping house and claim to economise.

Bates & Bell's, No. 21 Fifth street, is the ladies emporium of fashion. It is to Pittsburgh what Stewart's is to New York. The quality of the goods sold at this establishment are such as to commend the house to all purchasers.

"Sure, there is some wonder in this handkerchief," said Desdemona. Can it be that she had a prophetic smell of the "Flor del Santo," that exquisite perfume for the handkerchief, manufactured by C. B. Woodwerth & Son, Rochester, N. Y,

Hosiery of every description is embraced in the immense stock of goods now opening at W. W. Moorhead's fashionable retail trimming store, No. 81 Market street.

Sweetmeats and general confectionery in admirable selection and assortment can no where else better be obtained than at P. H. McGuire's, No. 105 Fifth street.

5,000 rare and valuable books are offered for sale at Eastern prices at Col. J. D. Eagan's well known Book and Stationery store, Sixth street, near Smithfield.

No. 21 Fifth street is the place where an immense stock of dress goods, and every variety of dry goods, is offered to the public at such reasonable prices.

Never was a more perfect and complete victory won than the one lately achieved by Dr. Geo. W. Spencer, the celebrated Pittsburgh Dentist. His superior facilities and knowledge of the science created an envy among his competitors that led to the use of every effort that bitter rivalry could produce—the newspapers were covered with flash, and in some cases ridiculous advertisements—teeth were sold at competition rates, and the Dental war waged high. The Doctor quietly put forth substantial, business-like advertisements of what he could and would do for those patronizing him, and done all he advertised, and moved quietly along while others nervously fumed, foamed and sweat. The result is, nearly all the practitioners whose names appeared so often in big letters under low figures have disappeared from the public view. Spencer's same solid, earnest and fact-stating cards occupy the same places and spaces in twenty-seven papers, and at his Great Steam Dental Depot, 254 Penn street, he continues to keep steadily employed some fifteen or eighteen assistants. It is needless to say more, and impossible to pay a higher compliment than publishing these very evident facts, which the public will readily recognize as such.

Mr. T. T. Ewens, Plumber, Gas and Steam Fitter, at No. 165 Wood street, has on hand at his establishment an excellent assortment of pumps, prominent among which we observed a patent ale pump which readily commends itself. He also keeps a full assortment of gas fixtures, which will be sold at reasonable prices. Mr. Ewens is a practical workman and gives special attention to steam fitting and we cheerfully recommend the public to his establishment. Special attention is given to work in the country by Mr. Ewens, and as he employs the most competent workmen our firends, everywhere who entrust work to him will have no cause to regret it. His prices are reasonable.

Housekeepers generally will find it to their advantage to call at the Original Diamond Front Grocery, No. 164 Federal street, Allegheny, where they will find one of the largest and best selected stocks of pure teas, coffees, spices, etc., embracing a complete assortment of choice family groceries. Messrs. McBride & George, the proprietors, are careful in making the purchases to buy nothing but what they can recommend, and nowhere else in either city can a better selection of goods be found at more reasonable prices.

Asthma.—The New York Independent published a letter from Rev. Jos. E. Roy, setting forth the wonderful efficiency of Jonas Whitcomb's Asthma Remedy. TTSW
